Working With Crisis and Trauma From an Islāmic Perspective Zarina Hassem, Shireen Ismail, Nabeela Vad Walla, G. Hussein Rassool, 2025-08-18 Working with Crisis and Trauma from an Islāmic Perspective provides a holistic framework and treatment methods for working with trauma and crises framed within an Islamic Psychology paradigm This book begins by conceptualising trauma and existing models of understanding treatment and then places trauma and crises within an Islamic viewpoint The authors focus on the Qur'an, the Sunnah and Islamic Psychology to rationalise and explain the effects of trauma and how it presents while proposing treatment methods within this context The final chapter uses case studies to illustrate practical applications and includes coping strategies directly from authentic Islamic sources and the sixth chapter focuses on the legacy of trauma in terms of post-traumatic growth This book will be essential reading for professionals in the fields of psychology and mental health looking to understand how Islamic Psychology practices can be presented as a treatment intervention for patients experiencing trauma and gain insight into how to incorporate these protocols into their own practice The Effects of Trauma Jim Banks, 2011-03

The following book describes a prayer tool that I stumbled across in late 2009 by putting pieces of the teachings of three of God's faithful servants together and adding a couple of others steps The power of it to virtually eliminate many of the symptoms that victims of trauma complain of has proven to be nothing short of miraculous Over the last 25 years of praying for physical and emotional healing I have prayed numerous prayers that at least in my estimation availed little But the last 400 or 500 folks or so that I have ministered this over have experienced relief that has been both instantaneous and up to this point permanent I am also happy to report that the recipients have experienced some significant results after having been prayed over in groups of 25 to 175 persons The Couple and Family Therapist's Notebook Katherine M. Hertlein, Dawn Viers, 2005

Continuing Haworth's Therapist's Notebook series The Couple and Family Therapist's Notebook provides clinicians with a wide range of practical field tested therapy activities solidly grounded to each intervention's theoretical underpinning Respected experts clearly detail creative interventions and then follow with insightful clinical vignettes to illustrate under what specific circumstances each particular approach is effective This dynamic resource provides you with quick and easily reproducible handouts and homework activities for your clients For more information on other books in the therapist's notebook series go to www.HaworthPress.com Islāmic Integrated Narrative Therapy G. Hussein Rassool, 2025-12-09

This book explores the integration of narrative therapy within the framework of Islamic psychotherapy combining modern therapeutic practices with the rich cultural and spiritual heritage of Islam Narrative therapy which emphasises the importance of personal stories in shaping an individual's identity and experiences finds a natural complement in the Islamic tradition where narration has always played an important role This integration provides a culturally sensitive therapeutic model that respects and utilises the client's faith and cultural background The book details how narrative therapy principles align with Islamic teachings particularly the emphasis on introspection personal responsibility and the transformative power of stories found in the Qur'an and Hadith It provides detailed guidelines and techniques for therapists to use narrative therapy with Muslim clients including culturally relevant storytelling methods and exercises These techniques are illustrated with real life examples and case studies In addition to practical techniques the book addresses the ethical considerations involved in integrating narrative therapy with Islamic psychotherapy along with emerging trends ongoing research and potential areas for further development This book offers an original contribution by developing a culturally and spiritually integrated model of narrative therapy tailored for Muslim clients By aligning therapeutic techniques with Islamic teachings it provides mental health professionals with practical faith sensitive tools making it especially valuable for therapists counsellors and scholars working within Muslim communities
