Birthing from Within Pam England, Rob Horowitz, 2007 Giving birth is the pivotal moment of a woman's life but it is often treated as a medical procedure and not as a rite of passage Birthing from Within offers parents engaging and memorable ways for pregnant women and their partners to activate personal social and spiritual resources that will guide them through labour and afterwards Many birth classes teach from the outside from the perspective of the professional Yet knowledge of anatomy and the stages of labour can often seem irrelevant in the intensity of contraction The pregnant woman needs to know about labour and birth from her own perspective she needs to be prepared for birthing from within Pam England offers a method that allows a woman to fully understand her own strengths and resources The self discoveries made during pregnancy makes birth life enhancing and empowers the future of the family It is a multi sensory and holistic approach that aims to make parents feel positively informed about what they are about to experience confident about the birth of their child Pain is an inevitable part of childbirth but Birthing from Within provides resources for building pain coping confidence in parents It gives detailed instructions on dealing with normal labour pain and when the humane use of drugs may be called for

Pilgrimage as Moral and Aesthetic Formation in Augustine's Thought Sarah Stewart-Kroeker, 2017-07-26 Augustine's dominant image for the human life is peregrinatio which signifies at once a journey to the homeland a pilgrimage and the condition of exile from the homeland For Augustine all human beings are in the earthly life exiles from their true homeland heaven Some but not all become pilgrims seeking a way back to the heavenly homeland a return mediated by the incarnate Christ Becoming a pilgrim begins with attraction to beauty The return journey therefore involves formation both moral and aesthetic in loving rightly This image has occasioned a lot of angst in ethical thought in the last century Augustine's vision of Christian life as a pilgrimage his critics allege casts a pall of groaning and longing over this life in favor of happiness in the next Augustine's eschatological orientation robs the world of beauty and ethics of urgency In Pilgrimage as Moral and Aesthetic Formation in Augustine's Thought Sarah Stewart Kroeker responds to Augustine's critics by elaborating the Christological continuity between the earthly journey and the eschatological home Through this cohesive account of pilgrimage as a journey toward the right ordering of the desire for beauty and love for God and neighbour Stewart Kroeker reveals the integrity of Augustine's vision of moral and aesthetic vision From the human desire for beauty to the embodied practice of Christian sacraments Stewart Kroeker develops an account of the relationship between beauty and morality as the linchpin of an Augustinian moral theology
