

There are four referencing guidelines in use at UWS and you should use the one that applies to your subject area:

Law students are expected to use the OSCOLA referencing guidelines.

Psychology students are expected to use the American Psychological Association referencing guidelines.

Scottish Baptist College Students are expected to use the Chicago guidelines.

Everyone else is expected to use the UWS Harvard Style outlined in this brief guide and in more detail on the library's "UWS Referencing Guide" Moodle page.

There are two parts to every reference:

Citations

- Appear within the text of your own work to indicate that you are paraphrasing or quoting from another source.
- Give the surname of the author(s) and date of publication (along with page number for a quotation).

The Reference List

- Is a list of all of the sources you have cited in your work, giving the full details of each source (see table on Parts of the Reference List opposite).
- Should be presented in alphabetical order at the end of your document.

Citation when paraphrasing:

The use of humour increases student engagement in the classroom (Miller et al., 2017).

Citation when quoting:

In the classroom, humour can be "an effective device for engagement" (Miller et al., 2017, p.797).

In the reference list:

Miller, J. L, Wilson, K, Miller, J. and Enomoto, K. (2017) Humorous materials to enhance active learning. Higher Education Research & Development, [Online] Vol.36(4), pp.791-806. Available: Taylor & Francis. [Accessed: 24 January 2018].
