Inscrutable Belongings Stephen Hong Sohn, 2018-07-17 Inscrutable Belongings brings together formalist and contextual modes of critique to consider narrative strategies that emerge in queer Asian North American literature Stephen Hong Sohn provides extended readings of fictions involving queer Asian North American storytellers looking to texts including Russell Leong's Camouflage Lydia Kwa's Pulse Alexander Chee's Edinburgh Nina Revoyr's Wingshooters and Noelle Alunit's Letters to Montgomery Clift Despite many antagonistic forces these works protagonists achieve a revolutionary form of narrative centrality through the defiant act of speaking out recounting their survival plots and enduring to the very last page These feats are made possible through their construction of alternative social structures Sohn calls Inscrutable Belongings Collectively the texts that Sohn examines bring to mind foundational struggles for queer Asian North Americans and other socially marginalized groups and confront a broad range of issues including interracial desire the AIDS/HIV epidemic transnational mobility and postcolonial trauma In these texts Asian North American queer people are often excluded from normative family structures and must contend with multiple histories of oppression erasure and physical violence involving homophobia racism and social death Sohn's work makes clear that for such writers and their imagined communities questions of survival kinship and narrative development are more than representational they are directly tied to lived experience discovered the other aspects of Shibari and in particular the feeling the relationship with the other this link of extreme trust between two beings without it being necessarily sexual this unity found between body and mind It is only in 2015 that I felt the need to introduce suspension this relationship to gravity this feeling of space as a liberation That s when I revised my techniques in order to improve safety the risk of injury is greater when you play with gravity I then expanded my practice with a contortionist yoga practitioners and teachers among others I went from aesthetics to feeling to what is now called connection Today I would say that aesthetics is a happy consequence of a beautiful session and as in a tango it is the result of interaction It is therefore in this spirit that this book is written even if it is essentially devoted to basic techniques and that I orient my private lessons and my program
