1 Under the Bridge James Richard Langston, 2012-12-05 Cherokee Teardrops 1985 By James Richard Langston Cherokee teardrops Soft dark and deep Shed by Cherokee women Every time they weep The tears of Cherokee women Rolled down their cheeks They cried for their nation Their braves lay at their feet Their homes all in ashes Their children standing bare They wiped Cherokee teardrops With their long raven hair A defeated Cherokee nation Submitting to their fate Were moved to Oklahoma In the winter of thirty eight Proud Cherokee teardrops Shed on every hand All because the white man Found gold on Cherokee land Cherokee teardrops From southern mountains grand Spread across this nation To a wasted dusty land Cherokee teardrops Falling on two stones Left a trail of sadness From their southern mountain homes

Student Voice Michael Lubelfeld, Nick Polyak, PJ Caposey, 2018-01-02 Student Voice From Invisible to Invaluable is about why and how today s leaders need to connect with students for success The premise of this book is that student voice is often invisible and that is possibly why schools have changed little since the 19th Century From digital citizenship to teacher evaluation we submit that the voice of students can be and needs to be amplified The authors wrote this book to help elevate the power and influence of student voice in the transformation and leadership of our schools The authors provide context that helps frame where education has been where it stands today and where the authors propose we go in school leadership To truly transform schools leaders in the classroom principal s office and district office need to elevate the voice of the student There is no greater way to inspire our children than to let them have a say in their own education We simply cannot create the leaders of tomorrow when we do not let them lead today This book will provide examples of excellence stories of success and practical tips to help you move student voice from invisible to invaluable
