Textiles of the Islamic World John Gillow,2013 Excellent as colorful and as full of joie de vivre as a room full of Matisse paintings The World of Interiors Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World (2 vols.) Susan Sinclair,2012-04-03 Following the tradition and style of the acclaimed Index Islamicus the editors have created this new Bibliography of Art and Architecture in the Islamic World The editors have surveyed and annotated a wide range of books and articles from collected volumes and journals published in all European languages except Turkish between 1906 and 2011 This comprehensive bibliography is an indispensable tool for everyone involved in the study of material culture in Muslim societies Woven Treasures Kjeld von Folsach,Anne-Marie Keblow Bernsted,1993 Islamic Textiles Patricia L. Baker,1995 Very Good No Highlights or Markup all pages are intact Islamicate Textiles Faegheh Shirazi,2023-04-06 Textiles and clothing are interwoven with Islamic culture In Islamicate Textiles readers are taken on a journey from Central Asia to Tanzania to uncover the central roles that textiles play within Muslim majority communities This thematically arranged book sheds light on the traditions rituals and religious practices of these regions and the ways in which each one incorporates materials and clothing Drawing on examples including Iranian lion carpets and Arabic keffiyeh Faegheh Shirazi frames these textiles and totemic items as important cultural signifiers that together form a dynamic and fascinating material culture Like a developing language this culture expands bends and develops to suit the needs of new generations and groups across the world The political significance of Islamicate textiles is also explored Faegheh Shirazi s writing reveals the fraught relationship between the East with its sought after materials and much valued textiles and the European countries that purchased and repurposed these goods and lays bare the historical and contemporary connections between textiles colonialism immigration and economics Dr Shirazi also discusses gender and how textiles and clothing are intimately linked with sexuality and gender identity The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World John L. Esposito,1995 This unique reference is the first comprehensive encyclopedia dedicated to the institutions religion politics and culture in Muslim societies throughout the world Placing particular emphasis on the nineteenth and twentieth centuries The Oxford Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World contains over 750 articles in four volumes The focus throughout is on the Islamic dimension of the Muslim experience in recent history and background articles ground the information in its historical context and ensure continuity Entries address political and social action as well as formal texts and emphasis is placed on the practice and theory of Islam in Muslim societies around the globe Unlike more limited explorations of Islam this work looks at Muslim societies in the Arab heartland as well as in South and Southeast Asia and even in Europe and the Americas Thus it is an invaluable resource offering extensive comparative and systematic analyses of Islamic beliefs institutions movements practices and peoples on an international scale Topical categories covered include history and geography schools of thought religious beliefs theology and philosophy mysticism religious practice devotionism and ritual religious law politics economics culture and society and biographies Alphabetically arranged articles range from brief 500 word essays to major interpretive and synthetic treatments of topics such as the Islamic state pilgrimage law marriage and foreign relations Related entries cover such topics as social and political movements women Muslim minorities human rights Islam in the West and interreligious affairs Truly multidisciplinary this work reflects the breadth and depth of contemporary scholarship in Islamic studies combining the tools of the humanities and social sciences to examine the interrelationship of religion politics and culture in Muslim societies and to explain the changing realities of Muslim life Designed for easy use by both scholars and students the work has an index and an extensive system of cross references that provide easy access to the network of related articles throughout the encyclopedia Entries are written by Muslim and non Muslim scholars from around the world Unique in its focus on the modern Islamic world this encyclopedia is an invaluable reference for anyone concerned with Islam scholars and students of many disciplines government and media analysts who increasingly require an understanding of the Muslim world and interested lay readers who are becoming more and more familiar with Islamic politics and culture

Decorative Textiles from Arab & Islamic Cultures Jennifer Mary Wearden, 2016 The exceptional collection published here ranges widely in region material and technique There are textiles and garments from North Africa Syria Arabia Iran Turkey and the Indian subcontinent linked by a shared vocabulary of ornament evidence of the international nature of Islamic design Materials represented are silk the most prestigious of fibres requiring highly respected weavers wool cotton and linen Decoration is based on variations of weave and colour and embellishment through embroidery printing and applique and illustrates the work of both professional and domestic workers The strengths of the collection are concentrated in the textile production of the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries which thanks to the basically conservative nature of textile technique and design preserve and continue the traditions established in the medieval Islamic world They are important in an assessment of Islamic textiles both for their quality and as illustrations of survival and adaptation in a major industry Their heritage reaches back well over a thousand years even though their very high perishability means that for the earlier part of the tradition our knowledge is reliant very largely on written sources These however attest to the superb quality and quantity of textiles at the courts of the period From Amazon com

The Islamic World John L. Esposito, 2004-05-13 Since the events of September 11 2001 students and people everywhere are filled with questions about Islam What do Muslims believe Who is Osama bin Laden What is a jihad Even though Islam is a major religion with more than one billion followers worldwide and more than six million in the United States alone there is still uncertainty and misunderstanding about the ideas tenets and practice of Islam Understanding Islam and the people who believe in it has become crucially important in the greater world The Islamic World Past and Present is the ideal source for fostering understanding and answering questions John Esposito s acclaimed four volume The Encyclopedia of the Modern Islamic World 1995 set the standard in references on Islam Adapted from this award winning set The Islamic World Past and Present brings all the scholarship and
