Why Docudrama? Alan Rosenthal,1999 Defining and examining the rationale of docudrama the nine essayists in the first part discuss the history and development of docudrama on TV and in film they also consider the place of truth in docudrama the main critiques of the form and the audience s susceptibilities and expectations In investigating the actual filmmaking process the eight essays in the second part focus on how docudrama as a commodity is created in the United States and England Part essay part case study and part interview this section also explores how Hollywood and the commercial networks as well as producers and writers work and think The final part presents an in depth critique of a number of controversial docudramas that have helped form and shape public opinion including Battleship Potemkin Roots Reds JFK Mississippi Burning Schindler s List and In the Name of the Father Here's Looking at You Ernest D. Giglio,2005 Here's Looking at You Hollywood Film Politics examines the tangled relationship between politics and Hollywood which manifests itself in celebrity involvement in political campaigns and elections and in the overt and covert political messages conveyed by Hollywood films The book s findings contradict the film industry s assertion that it is simply in the entertainment business and examines how while the majority of Hollywood films are strictly commercial ventures hundreds of movies ranging from Birth of a Nation to Fahrenheit 9 11 do indeed contain political messages Here's Looking at You serves as a basic text for political film courses and as a supplement in American government and film studies courses and will also appeal to film buffs and people in the film industry
