

Comprehension Guide

Bronx Masquerade

written by Nikki Grimes

Dial Books for Young Readers, 2002

Knowledge

1. Define the following poetic terms: simile, metaphor, alliteration, rhyme, personification, and hyperbole.
2. Quote three favorite lines of poetry from the book and explain why they are your favorites. (Be sure to write down page number, title of poem, and author.)
3. In three of the student poems, identify as many of the poetic elements as you can find.

Comprehension

1. Discuss why Open Mike gets so many students to reveal their dreams and fears more than a typical class. Discuss whether it would work at your school or not.
2. Cite examples of which students in Mr. Ward's class are most affected by Open Mike Fridays.
3. Predict what happens next year in Mr. Ward's English class.

Application

1. Pretend you are writing a feature article about Mr. Ward's Open Mike Friday. Write at least five questions you might ask to one of his students. Then, choose a student, and answer them as you think they would.
2. Try to write another poem through the eyes of your favorite character. Compare it to the other pieces from that student and be sure it has a similar voice and format.
3. Write a one-paragraph book review for Bronx Masquerade. Try to distill the premise of the book into just a few short sentences. Check out sample reviews in journals like School Library Journal, The Horn Book, and Kirkus. You can even post your review at Amazon.com!

Analyze

1. Examine the types of poems in the book: free verse, rhymes, and concrete. In a short paragraph explain why the author chose a variety of formats, and which one you find most compelling and why.
