the Geological Society: Discovering Forgotten Histories* C.V. Burek,B.M. Higgs,2021-03-18 The Geological Society of London was founded in 1807 At the time membership was restricted to men many of whom became well known names in the history of the geological sciences On the 21 May 1919 the first female Fellows were elected to the Society 112 years after its formation This Special Publication celebrates the centenary of that important event In doing so it presents the often untold stories of pioneering women geoscientists from across the world who navigated male dominated academia and learned societies experienced the harsh realities of Siberian field exploration or responded to the strategic necessity of the petroleum girls in early American oil exploration and production It uncovers important female role models in the history of science and investigates why not all of these women received due recognition from their contemporaries and peers The work has identified a number of common issues that sometimes led to original work and personal achievements being lost or unacknowledged and as a consequence to histories being unwritten      The Mining Journal, Railway and Commercial Gazette ,1902      The Dissenters Michael R. Watts,2015-03-19 This third and final volume of Michael Watts s study of dissent examines the turbulent times of Victorian Nonconformity a period of faith and of doubt Watts assesses the impacts of the major Dissenting preachers and provides insights into the various movements such as romanticism and the higher often German biblical criticism He shows that the preaching of hell and eternal damnation was more effective in recruiting to the chapels than the gentler interpretations A major feature of the volume is a thorough analysis of surviving records of attendance at Nonconformist services He provides fascinating accounts of Spurgeon and the other key figures of Nonconformity including of the Salvation Army Dr Watts also provides a fresh discussion of the contribution which Nonconformity made to the politics of mid to late Victorian Britain He examines such issues of reform as Forster s Education Act of 1871 temperance and Balfour s Education Act of 1902 and considers Nonconformist interventions in such controversies as the Bulgarian Agitation Home Rule for Ireland the Armenian massacres of the mid 1890s and the Boer War The volume concludes with the Liberal landslide in the 1906 general election which saw probably more Nonconformists elected than any time since the era of Oliver Cromwell      “The” Athenaeum ,1888      Mining Journal, Railway &
