Broken Solidarities Felix Anderl,2024-01-16 Felix Anderl's book is a stimulating analysis of the decline of social movements against the World Bank and the rise of a new form of transnational rule Reflecting on the transnational mobilizations of the 1990s the book examines activists struggles to sustain their momentum It shows how the opening up of world economic institutions contributed to complex rule in global governance creating access for some while weakening their critique and fragmenting the overall movement The book bridges international relations and social movement studies to observe international organizations and social movements in their interaction demonstrating how social movements are divided and ruled in the absence of a ruler

The Autocrat's Predicament Timothy R. Heath,2023-11-03 In their quest for national revival China's leaders under Xi Jinping have sought to improve the economy's performance The disappointing economic record of authoritarian regimes provides ample grounds for doubt yet not all have failed Why have some succeeded where most did not The theory of the enabling condition highlights the central role that politics plays in the pursuit of economic advancement The theory explains that a political situation characterized by a strong central leadership weak elite opposition and a united public offers favorable prospects for enacting concentrated growth policies This arrangement enables the central leadership to enlist the public in convincing elites to implement policies that they might otherwise resist Focusing on the experience of single party authoritarian regimes The Autocrat's Predicament: The Political Peril of Economic Upgrade in Single Party Authoritarian Regimes examines episodes in the histories of the People's Republic of China Taiwan and the Soviet Union It concludes that China's unfavorable political situation could be potentially unfriendly for its ambitions to build an efficient highly productive economy

Land Fragmentation in Agriculture Malcolm F. McPherson,1983

The Water Problem Pat Mulroy,2017-03-28 Building water resilience is the single biggest challenge in a changing global climate The United States faces a water crisis as critical as the energy crisis that once dominated headlines Like the energy crisis a solution can be found Pat Mulroy for many years general manager of the Southern Nevada Water Authority the lead negotiator on the Colorado River for the State of Nevada and a Brookings fellow has gathered a number of practitioners and scholars to show us why we face a crisis caused by climate change and what we can do to alleviate it While the focus recently has been on California with its water restrictions and drought many other parts of the United States are also suffering from current and potential water shortages that will only be exacerbated by climate change The Water Problem takes us to Miami and the problem of rising oceans fouling freshwater reservoirs Kansas and Nebraska where intensive farming is draining age old aquifers and to the Southwest United States where growing populations are creating enormous stresses on the already strained Colorado River Mulroy and her contributors explore not just the problems but also what we can do now to put in place measures to deal with a very real crisis
