Home Health Aide Inservice Topics:

24 Essential Inservices for Home Health HCPro (Firm), 2006 Home health aide inservice training is vital to quality patient care and is mandated by your state. How can you be sure you're providing the best training possible without spending hours of preparation time? The solution is here. 24 Essential Inservices for Home Health includes everything you need to provide 24 complete inservices on the most important topics at the very low cost of just 6 per lesson. A comprehensive training tool. For each topic you'll receive a comprehensive inservice that can be used as a group lesson or for self study by individual aides and nurses. Each inservice includes an in depth lesson plan, a post test to document the training and a certificate of completion for staff. The companion CD ROM makes the lessons easy to customize. All materials are in the manual AND on the included CD ROM enabling you to modify the lessons to meet the particular needs of your agency or the requirements of your state. Use the inservices over and over again just print out the materials from the CD ROM as necessary. You'll get everything you need to provide an information packed 30 minute inservice on any of the 24 essential topics. If you prefer add your own agency specific information, demonstrations and discussion time to extend the training to 60 minutes or more. The best value on the market. For about 6 per lesson you'll receive everything necessary to provide CMS compliant home health aide education on the following 24 topics: Alzheimer's Disease, Basic Nutrition Guidelines for Balanced Meals and Special Diets, Behavior Management, Bloodborne Pathogens and Standard Precautions, Care of the Skin, Guidelines for Ensuring Skin Integrity, Caring for Residents with Dementia, Depression and Anxiety, Diabetes, Elder Abuse and Neglect, Preventing Recognizing and Reporting End of Life Care, Guidelines for Providing Personal Care, Heart Disease, Incontinence and Constipation, Infection Control Guidelines, Standard Precautions, Additional Precautions, Lifting and Transferring, Malnutrition and Dehydration, Mental Illness, Oxygen Training, Psychosocial Care, Range of Motion and Positioning, Respiratory Disorders, Understanding Pain, Vital Signs, Guidelines for Measuring Vital Signs and Weight, Seizures and Strokes. Home Health Aide On-the-go In-service Faith Williams, 2016-12-16 Home Health Aide On the go In service Series Volume 16. Home Health Aide On-The-Go In-Service Lessons: Vol. 5, Issue 6: Aide/Patient Conflicts ,2007-12-31 This lesson on Aide Patient Conflicts includes a complete training packet Each in service packet takes approximately one hour to complete and fully meets the Medicare in service training requirements As aides need training you can make as many copies as you want there s no restriction when used with aides assigned from your office location Remember that Home Health Aides must have 12 hours of in service training every year

LESSON OBJECTIVES Upon completion of this program the home health aide will be able to Better understand why patients may exhibit difficult behavior List techniques to handle difficult patients and Explain the importance of reporting and documenting events regarding difficult patients

OVERVIEW For the most part home health patients are pleasant and welcoming to the presence of home health aides and are eager to do what it takes to get better Occasionally however the home health aide will experience a conflict due to behavioral issues with the patient A patient may be having a hard time learning to live with a disease or adjusting to the lifestyle changes an injury or disease requires The patient may take out these frustrations on the caregiver The patient may be resistant or bitter and even at times aggressive The patient may also have mental status changes directly related to disease or to aging Instead of reacting negatively and making the situation worse a home health aide can use techniques to build a more solid trusting relationship with the patient Understanding the potential causes of the behavior helps aides know how to respond effectively This inservice looks at some of the possible reasons a patient may be difficult and offers tips on dealing with such patients Home Health Aide On-The-Go In-Service Lessons: Vol. 1, Issue 3: Home Health Aides and State Surveys, 2007-12-31 This lesson on Home Health Aides State Surveys includes a complete training packet Each in service packet takes approximately one hour to complete and fully meets the Medicare in service training requirements As aides need training you can make as many copies as you want there s no restriction when used with aides assigned from your office location Remember that Home Health Aides must have 12 hours of in service training every year

LESSON OBJECTIVES After completion of this program the home health aide will be able to Describe two reasons why homecare surveys are performed List three primary methods for surveying home health aide services Explain the responsibilities of the home health aide during home visits

LESSON OVERVIEW The survey of homecare agencies is an anxious time for all concerned It is particularly troublesome for home health aides since they often do not understand how the survey is conducted and what role they are expected to play Failure to meet the standard for home health aide services can result in a Condition level deficiency for the agency During a survey home visits will be made to observe home health aide care delivery Aide documentation and employee files will be reviewed The topic of the survey is an important one for home health aides since they will always be directly and indirectly involved in the process The information presented in this program will help to explain the process as well as outline the responsibilities of the home health aide during a survey
