Functions Of Newspaper Headlines:

Truth to Tell John Morley, 1998-01-01      Phraseological Substitutions in Newspaper Headlines Sylvia Jaki, 2014-07-15 The major purpose of newspaper headlines is to trigger the reader's interest. A popular way to achieve this goal is the use of phraseological modifications. Based on previous findings from various linguistic disciplines, this book provides an interdisciplinary approach to shed light on the reception of substitutions like 'More than Meats the Eye'. It develops an empirical methodology for investigating the complex cognitive processes involved using a large sample of authentic examples for illustration. Along these lines, this volume not only shows what associations readers make when they encounter a lexical substitution and what factors facilitate the recognition of the canonical form, it also addresses the question of how meaning is constructed in terms of Conceptual Integration Theory and establishes an experimentally supported model of interpretation. This multifaceted perspective renders Phraseological Substitutions in Newspaper Headlines: More than Meats the Eye relevant to scholars and advanced students from a wide range of linguistic areas such as phraseology, cognitive linguistics, psycholinguistics, and humour research, but also to interested journalists.

Civics and Government James Dick, Jeffrey Blais, Peter Moore, 1996 Is economic freedom a necessary condition for political freedom? What can the government do about unemployment? Why would governments limit international trade? Students use questions such as these to help them make essential connections between economics and civics government.

Newspaper Writing and Editing Willard Grosvenor Bleyer, 1913      The Wedding Report Hans-Jürg Suter, 1993-09-01 Traditional text types or genres are complex linguistic, sociocultural, and cognitive phenomena that can only be analysed in flexible interdisciplinary frameworks fusing structural and process-oriented approaches and combining quantitative description with qualitative interpretation and evaluation. The theoretical and methodological implications of the prototypical text type concept, which is developed in this book, are explored in an exhaustive case study of a representative, i.e. prototypical genre: the wedding report, a conventional type of news report published in local English newspapers. The distinctive contextual and textual features, situational context, text production processes, function, thematic structure, and form on the macro and microlevel are analysed synchronically and diachronically. The linguistic findings are integrated into a comprehensive view of the interplay between the genre as a linguistic frame and its sociocultural context. The study puts special emphasis on addressing the methodological problems arising from the inherent fuzziness of traditional text types and can thus serve as a detailed working model of genre analysis designed to be adapted to the specific requirements of similar studies.

Memory and Attitudes as a Function of Headline Types Williams B. Milbrath, 1992      Chinese Translation Studies in the 21st Century Roberto A. Valdeon, 2018-11-09 Chinese Translation Studies in the 21st Century which presents a selection of some of the best articles published in the journal Perspectives in a five-year period (2012-2017) highlights the vitality of Translation Studies as a profession and as a field of enquiry in China. As the country has gradually opened up to the West, translation academic programmes have burgeoned to cater for the needs of Chinese corporations and political institutions The book is divided into four sections in which authors explore theoretical and conceptual issues such as the connection between translation and adaptation multimodality and the nature of norms audiovisual translation including studies on news translation and the translation of children s movies bibliographies and bibliometrics to assess for example the international visibility of Chinese scholars and interpreting analyzing pauses in simultaneous interpreting and sign language among other aspects The book brings together well established authors and younger scholars from universities in mainland China Hong Kong Macao and Taiwan The chapters in this book were originally published in various issues of Perspectives Studies in Translatology Language and Linguistics in a Complex World Beatrix Busse, Nina Dumrukic, Ingo Kleiber, 2023-03-06 This book is a collection of the ICAME41 conference proceedings covering a range of topics in corpus linguistics Busse et al Explore contemporary trends and new directions in the field Papers focusing on historical linguistics include Bohmann et al s study on the passive alternation in 19th and 20th century American English whilst Iyeiri and Fukunaga investigate negation in 19th century American missionary documents Bohmann s emphasis is on the Contrastive usage profiling method to represent online discourse data Empirical studies on discourse analysis include Brooks analysis of how the UK press portrays obesity Coats generating ASR transcripts to look at dialect data from YouTube and Gonzalez Cruz s pragmatic considerations of Anglicisms entering Canarian Spanish digital headlines Schneider use statistical models to look at language comprehension in an eye tracking corpus The Ohio Newspaper, 1919 Newspaper Make-up and Headlines Norman John Radder, 1924 Journal of the American Bankers Association American Bankers Association, 1912 Editing the Day's News George C.
