

Types of Prose and Prose Style

1. Autobiography

An autobiography is an account of one's own self. Generally it presents a continuous narrative of major events in the life of an author. The word "Autobiography" is composed of two words; "Auto" means "self" and "biography" means "life-story". Therefore an autobiography is a story of experiences and achievements of writer's own life. It must suffer a constitutional flaw because it must come to an end before the author's death. Yet Dr. Johnson preferred autobiography to biography. His opinion is that "no man's life could be better written than himself." Longfellow says, "Autobiography is a product of firsthand experience. Biography is second hand knowledge." An autobiography presents personal experiences directly, unhampered by the artificiality of impersonal forms of an author. The psychoanalytic critics consider writing of an autobiography as writer's attempt to "reconstruct the self."

First fully developed and influential autobiography is St. Augustine's "Confessions". Jean Jacques Rousseau applied same title for his autobiography in 18th century. Some of the permanent contributions to English literature are the autobiographies of Edward Gibbon, Benjamin Franklin, Leigh Hunt, H.G. Wells, Winston Churchill and Rudyard Kipling etc.

Mahatma Gandhi's My Experiments with Truth, Pt. Jawaharlal Nehru's Discovery of India Kamla Das' "My Story" and APJ Abdul Kalam's "Wings of Fire" are notable examples of Indian autobiographies of great literary significance.

2. Biography

A biography is a detailed description or account of someone's life. More than a list of basic facts, (education, work, relationships, and death), the biography also portrays the subject's experience of those events. A biography presents a subject's life story, highlighting various aspects of his/her life, including intimate details of experience, and may include an analysis of the subject's personality. Biographical works are usually non-fiction, but fiction can also be used to portray a person's life.

Biography is the history of particular man's life." – John Dryden

In the words of Harold Nicolson- "The Biography is a truthful record of an individual, composed as a work of art."

The golden era of English biography emerged in the late 18th century when the terms 'biography' and 'autobiography' entered in the English lexicon. A biographer encountered several problems while writing a biography. If he is writing a biography of a person who departed from this earth long ago, his work is often hindered because of a lack of resources to authenticate the available information. Biographers of a recently departed person would face the
