A Short History of Writing Instruction James Jerome Murphy, 2012 A Short History of Writing Instruction preserves the legacy of writing instruction from antiquity to contemporary times with a unique focus on the material educational and institutional context of the Western rhetorical tradition

A Short History of Writing Instruction James J. Murphy, 2012-05-04 Short enough to be synoptic yet long enough to be usefully detailed A Short History of Writing Instruction is the ideal text for undergraduate courses and graduate seminars in rhetoric and composition It preserves the legacy of writing instruction from antiquity to contemporary times with a unique focus on the material educational and institutional context of the Western rhetorical tradition Its longitudinal approach enables students to track the recurrence over time of not only specific teaching methods but also major issues such as social purpose writing as power the effect of technologies the rise of vernaculars and writing as a force for democratization The collection is rich in scholarship and critical perspectives which is made accessible through the robust list of pedagogical tools included such as the Key Concepts listed at the beginning of each chapter and the Glossary of Key Terms and Bibliography for Further Study provided at the end of the text Further additions include increased attention to orthography or the physical aspects of the writing process new material on high school instruction sections on writing in the electronic age and increased coverage of women rhetoricians and writing instruction of women A new chapter on writing instruction in Late Medieval Europe was also added to augment coverage of the Middle Ages fill the gap in students knowledge of the period and present instructional methods that can be easily reproduced in the modern classroom

Writing Arguments John D. Ramage, John C. Bean, June Johnson, 2016-07-13 For courses in Argument and Research This version of Writing Arguments A Rhetoric with Readings Brief has been updated to reflect the 8th edition of the MLA Handbook April 2016 Teach students to read arguments critically and to produce effective arguments Writing Arguments A Rhetoric with Readings Brief Edition Tenth Edition integrates four different approaches to argument the enthymeme as a logical structure the classical concepts of logos pathos and ethos the Toulmin system and stasis theory Focusing on argument as dialogue in search of solutions instead of a pro con debate with winners and losers it is consistently praised for teaching the critical thinking skills needed for writing arguments Major assignment chapters each focus on one or two classical stases e g definition resemblance causal evaluation and policy Each concept is immediately reinforced with discussion prompts and each chapter ends with multiple comprehensive writing assignments This brief version contains exemplary readings within the chapters but excludes the anthology included in the comprehensive version Also available in a Comprehensive version 032190673X and a Concise version 0321964284 which is a redaction of the Brief edition The 8th Edition introduces sweeping changes to the philosophy and details of MLA works cited entries Responding to the increasing mobility of texts MLA now encourages writers to focus on the process of crafting the citation beginning with the same questions for any source These changes then align with current best practices in the teaching of writing which privilege inquiry and critical thinking over rote recall and rule following
