Atonement Ian McEwan,2003-02 For use in schools and libraries only Swift s first novel since his Booker prize winning Last Orders is a luminous and gripping tale of love murder and redemption involving George Webb a divorced ex policeman turned private investigator Ian McEwan Irena Księżopolska,2024-04-30 This book offers a discussion of seven canonical novels by Ian McEwan The Cement Garden The Comfort of Strangers The Child in Time The Innocent Black Dogs Atonement On Chesil Beach introducing radical new readings which are offered not as ultimate and conclusive solutions of the textual puzzles but as possibilities to engage with the text creatively to enrich the critical consensus and restore interpretative freedom to the readers This project formulates a strategy of inclusive reading an approach to the text that does not seek to reduce it to a single interpretation and yet is comprehensively informed through the analysis of the primary text critical discussion authorial comments and the context of the composition Each reading demonstrates the metafictional structure of the texts indicating that McEwan s works may be treated as invitations to roam within their worlds examining the multiple frames of their structure and the meanings generated thereby All the chapters attend to submerged repressed or deliberately masked voices The Cement Garden is seen as a multi layered dream with a shifting hierarchy of dreamers The Comfort of Strangers is viewed as an inverted metafiction with insubstantial characters corrupting more complex heroes The Child in Time is read as Stephen s book written for his dead daughter The Innocent as a memory narrative of Leonard who refuses to notice Maria s role as a spy In Black Dogs the over exposure of unreliability is studied as a screen for personal trauma in the analysis of Atonement Briony s claim to authorship is questioned and Cecilia is suggested as an alternative narrative agent

Finally examining On Chesil Beach both characters voices are reconstructed in search of the superior narrative power which in the end is seen to be elusive as the text seeks to undermine the hierarchy of voices Waiting for the End Earl G. Ingersoll, 2007 Waiting for the End examines two dozen contemporary novels within the context of a half century of theorizing about the function of ending in narrative That theorizing about ending generated a powerful dynamic a quarter century ago with the advent of feminist criticism of masculinist readings of the role played by ending in fiction Feminists such as Theresa de Lauretis in 1984 and more famously Susan Winnett in her 1991 PMLA essay Coming Unstrung were leading voices in a swelling chorus of theorist pointing out the masculinist bias of ending in narrative With the entry of feminist readings of ending it became inevitable that criticism of fiction would become gendered through the recognition of difference transcending a simple binary of female male to establish a spectrum of masculine to feminine endings regardless of the sex of the writer Accordingly Waiting for the End examines pairs of novels one pair by Margaret Atwood and one by Ian McEwan to demonstrate how a writer can offer endings at either end of the gender spectrum Ian McEwan Jonathan Noakes, Margaret Reynolds, 2012-03-31 In Vintage Living Texts teachers and students will find the essential guide to the works of Ian McEwan This guide will deal with his themes genre and narrative technique and a close reading of the texts will be accompanied with likely exam questions and contexts and comparisons as well as providing a rich source of ideas for intelligent and inventive ways of approaching the novels The Routledge Companion to Theatre-Fiction Graham Wolfe, 2023-11-14 Novelists have long been attracted to theatre Some have pursued success on the stage but many have sought to combine these worlds entering theatre through their fiction setting stages on their novels pages and casting actors directors and playwrights as their protagonists The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction has convened an international community of scholars to explore the remarkable array of novelists from many eras and parts of the world who have created fiction from the stuff of theatre asking what happens to theatre on the pages of novels and what happens to novels when they collaborate with theatre From J W Goethe to Louisa May Alcott Mikhail Bulgakov Virginia Woolf and Margaret Atwood some of history s most influential novelists have written theatre fiction and this Companion discusses many of these figures from new angles But it also spotlights writers who have received less critical attention such as Dorothy Leighton Agust n de Rojas Villandrando Ronald Firbank Syed Mustafa Siraj Li Yu and Vicente Blasco Iba ez bringing their work into conversation with a vital field A valuable resource for students scholars and admirers of both theatre and novels The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction offers a wealth of new perspectives on topics of increasing critical concern including intermediality theatricality antitheatricality mimesis diegesis and performativity Ian McEwan's Atonement & Saturday Christina Byrnes, 2006-01-01 Atonement Ian McEwan, 2014-06-17 Brilliant and utterly enthralling in its depiction of childhood love and war England and class this beautiful hardcover edition of the bestselling tour de force The New York Times is a profound and profoundly moving exploration of shame and forgiveness and the difficulty of absolution On the hottest day of the summer of 1935 thirteen year old Briony Tallis sees her older sister Cecilia strip off her clothes and plunge into the fountain in the garden of their country house Watching Cecilia is their housekeeper s son Robbie Turner a childhood friend who along with Briony s sister has recently graduated from Cambridge By the end of that day the lives of all three will have been changed forever Robbie and Cecilia will have crossed a boundary they had never before dared to approach and will have become victims of the younger girl s scheming imagination And Briony will have committed a dreadful crime the guilt for which will color her entire life In each of his novels Ian McEwan has brilliantly drawn his reader into the intimate lives and situations of his characters But never before has he worked with so large a canvas In Atonement he takes the reader from a manor house in England in 1935 to the retreat from Dunkirk in 1941 from the London s World War II military hospitals to a reunion of the Tallis clan in 1999 Don t miss Ian McEwan s new novel Lessons coming in September

Discrepant Solace
David James,2019-05-23 Consolation has always played an uncomfortable part in the literary history of loss But in recent decades its affective meanings and ethical implications have been recast by narratives that appear at first sight to foil solace altogether Illuminating this striking archive Discrepant Solace considers writers who engage with consolation not as an aesthetic salve but as an enduring problematic one that unravels at the centre of emotionally challenging works of late twentieth and twenty first century fiction and life writing The book understands solace as a generative yet conflicted aspect of style where microelements of diction rhythm and syntax capture consolation s alternating desirability and contestation With a wide angle lens on the contemporary scene David James examines writers who are rarely considered in conversation including Sonali Deraniyagala Colson Whitehead Cormac McCarthy W G Sebald Doris Lessing Joan Didion J M Coetzee Marilynne Robinson Julian Barnes Helen Macdonald Ian McEwan Colm T ib n Kazuo Ishiguro Denise Riley and David Grossman These figures overturn critical suppositions about consolation s kinship with ideological complaisance superficial mitigation or dubious distraction producing unsettling perceptions of solace that shape the formal and political contours of their writing Through intimate readings of novels and memoirs that explore seemingly indescribable experiences of grief trauma remorse and dread James demonstrates how they turn consolation into a condition of expressional possibility without ever promising us relief He also supplies vital traction to current conversations about the stakes of thinking with contemporary writing to scrutinize affirmative structures of feeling revealing unexpected common ground between the operations of literary consolation and the urgencies of cultural critique Discrepant Solace makes the close reading of emotion crucial to understanding the work literature does in our precarious present

Literature of the Global Age Maurizio Ascari,2014-01-10 In an age of world citizenship literary scholarship is focusing increasingly on texts which communicate effectively over cultural lines Advocating a planetary approach to contemporary literature this critical text examines eight novels from eight cultures The writers discussed are Julian Barnes Magda Szabo Abraham B Yehoshua Ian McEwan W G Sebald Murakami Haruki Jonathan Safran Foer and Azar Nafisi Focusing on the authors encouragement to meditate on life s

most pressing issues the essays here invite us to reevaluate postmodernism as a current category Guilt in Ian McEwan's "Atonement" and Joe Wright's film adaptation Carmen Odimba, 2015-04-30 Seminar paper from the year 2009 in the subject Cultural Studies Basics and Definitions grade 3 0 Johannes Gutenberg University Mainz Department of British Irish Studies Translation Studies course Seminar Transferring Translating Media Novels to Film Ian McEwan's Atonement language English abstract Atonement the novel by Ian McEwan published in 2001 is qualified by many critics as a wartime love story It is an interpretation that suits the glamorous criteria needed by the public and provided by the media nowadays This interpretation however solely focuses on the characters of Cecilia and Robbie and forgets the important part that Briony or her writing process play in the novel and Joe Wright's film A complete reading of Atonement should include a study of the title and its implications in the story We will start by analyzing the meaning of the word atonement The choice of this title has a special significance for the whole novel and should lead us readers and spectators to understand its message to know whether the spirit of the novel has been respected by the film maker is a question to which we will also answer briefly The tragic event that happened in Part One of the novel could never have taken place in a more opened social environment With other codifications more courage and less things left unsaid the story would have been different We will examine some of the taboos that played an important role in the shaping of Atonement's characters The notion of guilt is very present in the novel thus it will be in relation to atonement the central focus of this paper We will consider the main characters i e Briony Robbie Cecilia Lola and Paul Marshall and try to evaluate the degree to which each one of them is guilty feels guilty and is willing to atone for his sins The last part of the paper will be essentially dedicated to the film to Joe Wright's interpretation of the concepts we named above Considering our paper's subject was it a good or a bad adaptation
