Chapter 3 Systems Thinking University Of Pretoria:

From Technology Transfer to Intercultural Development S. Stribos, Jan van der Stoep, 2012-02-01 The idea for this book has been born in a dialogue between the authors of In Search of an Integrative Vision for Technology 2006 and a group of scholars and practitioners from South Africa whose research and development activities focuses on problems of traditional African society and culture Although there existed awareness in the writing of the earlier book that the search for normativity for our technological society should encompass the different cultural spheres of the world no attention has been paid to the problem of interculturality Focussing on the development of technology in the developed societies the emphasis was laid on finding a basis for interdisciplinarity bridging the gaps between the sciences and humanities as well as between theory and practice According to the vision that has been elaborated on in the above book not the autonomous dynamics of technology as a free flying projectile should determine the future of our global world but guidance has to be provided by a normative perspective on technology for the common good of all people and cultures Following further this line of research the current book aims to address explicitly the intercultural dimension of technology in our globalising world Media in Education António Moreira, Otto Benavides, Antonio Jose Mendes, 2014-07-08 With the aim of discussing old and new teaching technologies based on research and on the strategies and praxis of the use of technologies and methodologies in the different teaching levels and also embracing the contribution and active participation of researchers teachers creators managers and other specialists the work will provide inputs on the following topics Students perspectives on media in the classroom Students and media as content and as tools for learning Educational Media Design Institutional Impact of the integration of Educational Media Old v New Media what really matters Research and Evaluation Personal and or social learning environments networks Media and inclusion Media and informal learning Immersive learning environments Virtual mobility in Education Mobile learning Media and literacies Affirmative Intervention to Support Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills, 2024-11-29 This book offers a pioneering approach to collaborative co authorship integrating storytelling participatory action research and innovative uses of technology like Zoom to bridge geographical and cultural divides The authors emphasize authentic dialogue using a form of metalogue to ensure all voices are heard and respected thus avoiding ventriloquy speaking for or over others Their praxis revolves around performative and regenerative projects involving indigenous custodians academics students and community members aiming to address Species Apartheid and promote a more inclusive and sustainable future The book s engagement model includes inner work focusing on critical analysis and analytical meditation on values and their consequences outer work involving transformative education and organic food production workshops to engage a broad community of practice and future work exploring narrative and if then scenarios to envision new possibilities with an emphasis on creativity and courage The authors draw inspiration from diverse sources including Indigenous knowledge systems and various academic institutes and organizations Through their collaborative efforts they aim to create a more inclusive sustainable and just world
