

300 creative writing prompts for kids

Imagine a giant box is delivered to your front doorstep with your name on it. What's inside and what happens when you open it?

Write a short story about what it might be like if you woke up one morning with a mermaid tail.

Write about what would it be like if you had an alligator as a pet.

If you were in charge of the whole world, what would you do to make the world a happier place?

Imagine that dogs take over the world. What do they make the humans do?

Write about 3 places you would like to travel someday. What do these three places have in common?

Write a poem that starts with the word "if".

How do you feel when someone takes something of yours without asking? What is a good way to deal with it when that happens?

Imagine you walk out your front door one morning and it is raining popcorn! What do you do?

100 Minutes Lisa Donohue, 2012 100 Minutes is a comprehensive look at literacy and learning that includes reading writing oral communication and digital literacy It shows teachers how to fit balanced literacy into a 100 minute literacy block using a framework of whole class and guided small group instruction writing sessions and independent work By chunking a literacy block into three distinct sections this practical resource argues that it is possible to provide opportunities for students to engage in all aspects of literacy have voice and choice in their learning capitalize on their strengths identify areas for growth and set personal learning goals

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of the future of curriculum materials
