

The book cover features a detailed illustration of various woodworking tools and wood pieces. In the upper center, three chisels with light-colored wooden handles and metal heads are arranged diagonally. To their left, a square and a pencil are visible. Below the chisels, a large, ornate wooden carving is shown. In the lower right, a circular saw blade is partially visible. The background is filled with various wood grains and shapes, including a large wooden block in the upper left and a piece of wood with a hole in the lower left. The entire scene is framed by a decorative border with a repeating geometric pattern.
