Touching Grass Conrad Riker, 101-01-01

Did you grow up feeling like the world made sense until it didn't? Did you once believe in honor, hard work, and real relationships, only to be mocked, betrayed, or discarded? Have you watched everything good—school, dating, friendship, even walking outside—get ruined by screens, lies, and women who act like mercenaries? This book isn't about dating tips or self-improvement while the system burns. It's about the war between nature and nonsense, and why you're losing by playing fair. It exposes how schools became daycare for degeneracy and obedience training for slaves. It names the biological truth behind female hypergamy and why modern dating is a rigged casino. It reveals why going outside alone with a purpose is now the most radical act a man can commit. It proves social media didn't connect us; it lobotomized a generation and sold the corpse to advertisers. It shows how leftist ideology weaponizes emotion to destroy logic and why sentimentality is the enemy of truth. And it gives you back the lost spirit of Western man, not as a victim but as a warrior of reality. If you want to reclaim your mind, your time, and your life from the frauds and fraudsters who stole them, buy this book today.

Expressive Networks Matthew Kilbane, 2025-06-10 Expressive Networks convenes an urgent conversation on digital media and the social life of contemporary poetry Tracing how poems circulate through online spaces and how capitalized platforms have come to pattern the reading and writing of poetry contributors emphasize both the expressivist cast of digital literary culture and the deep running ambivalence that characterizes aesthetic and critical responses to platformed cultural production The volume features chapters on Pan African spoken word programs Singaporean Facebook groups decolonial hemispheric networks and Japanese media critical poetics as well as platforms such as Twitter X Instagram and Amazon Though contributors write from a variety of methodological positions and address themselves to a range of archives they share the primary conviction that the impact of Web 2.0 on literary practice is far reaching far from self-evident and far more variegated and unpredictable than easy summations of social media's influence suggest Expressive Networks asks after poetry's present and future by examining what poems themselves express about the social make-up of networked platforms Edited by Matthew Kilbane with contributions from Cameron Awkward Rich Micah Bateman Andrew Campana Sumita Chakraborty Scott Challener C.
