Sample Book Insights

- 1 I was born in 1938, the first Turner born north of the Mason Dixon line. I was showered with love from my parents and extended family. My earliest memories are of holding the screen door open for my great grandmother on my mother's side.
- 2 I was an energetic child and I spent much of my time in the backyard and at the creek that ran through a little vacant lot down the street. I turned over rocks to find little bugs and crayfish and took them home to put in a jar. I was the center of my parents' attention for nearly three years before the birth of my sister Mary Jean.
- 3 I had a difficult time adjusting to life in Cincinnati after the war. My father was a perfectionist and I was often punished for doing things wrong. I didn't like going to school and spent most of my time outside playing with my friends.
- 4 I had no way of knowing if my father was telling the truth when he said that the razor strap hurt him more than it did me, but I do know that he used it on me a lot. I had no way of knowing if he was telling the truth when he said that he loved me, but I do know that he was a very volatile man with a quick temper.

Baseball's Most Outrageous Promotions Joseph Natolicchio, 2026-01-07. In major league baseball, the period between 1946 and the early 1980s represented the Era of the Barnums, when certain inspired owners and executives raised to an art form the use of promotions to increase attendance. This book highlights thirteen of the most outlandish such stunts in major league history. These promotions go far beyond giveaways of Hawaiian shirts or unique bobbleheads. They involved a battle with weapons between baseball players and fans, children running willy nilly around a baseball field, naked fans running the bases, drunken fans trashing baseball fields, fans dismantling a stadium while a game was ongoing, fans managing a game from the stands, women parading in wet T-shirts, mass weddings, the Beatles playing to a half-empty stadium, a mule mascot treated better than players, and an explosion on a baseball field large enough to create a crater. Even wilder promotions are covered in impressive detail in this unique study of major league history.

Empires of Entertainment Jennifer Holt, 2011. Empires of Entertainment integrates legal, regulatory, industrial, and political histories to chronicle the dramatic transformation within the media between 1980 and 1996. Through the use of case studies that highlight key moments in this transformation, Holt skillfully expands the conventional models and boundaries of media history.

Making the News Popular Anthony M. Nadler, 2016-06-15. The professional judgment of gatekeepers defined the American news agenda for decades. Making the News Popular examines how subsequent events brought on a post-professional period that opened the door for imagining that consumer preferences should drive news production and unleashed both crisis and opportunity on journalistic institutions. Anthony Nadler charts a paradigm shift from market research's reach into the editorial suite in the 1970s through contemporary experiments in collaborative filtering and social news sites like Reddit and Digg As Nadler shows the transition was and is a rocky one It also goes back much further than many experts suppose Idealized visions of demand driven news face obstacles with each iteration Furthermore the post professional philosophy fails to recognize how organizations mobilize interest in news and public life Nadler argues that this civic function of news organizations has been neglected in debates on the future of journalism Only with a critical grasp of news outlets role in stirring broad interest in democratic life he says might journalism s digital crisis push us toward building a more robust and democratic news media Wide ranging and original Making the News Popular offers a critical examination of an important and still evolving media phenomenon Power Surge Thomas Schatz,2026 From the author of The Genius of the System the classic tale of Hollywood s first golden age comes the story of its last Thomas Schatz returns us to an era when a newly enriched movie industry rediscovered its creative energy and indie went mainstream without losing its edge Between 1989 and 2004 all the old studios either merged with other media giants or were swallowed up by even bigger diversified behemoths leading to an infusion of money and fast tracking the digital revolution Yet even as CGI and piles of cash fueled a new breed of blockbusters Batman and Titanic Toy Story and The Lord of the Rings an indie ethos permeated the industry And at the crossroads of commodification and aesthetic vision auteurs ranging from Steven Soderbergh and Quentin Tarantino to Sofia Coppola and Ang Lee became household names Power Surge traces these trajectories which increasingly clashed and commingled during the 1990s and early 2000s resulting in nothing short of a new golden age and perhaps the last gasp of the century old studio system Harper's ,2010 People ,2008-11 Time Briton Hadden, Henry Robinson Luce,1928 Book Review Index - 2009 Cumulation Dana Ferguson,2009-08 Book Review Index provides quick access to reviews of books periodicals books on tape and electronic media representing a wide range of popular academic and professional interests The up to date coverage wide scope and inclusion of citations for both newly published and older materials make Book Review Index an exceptionally useful reference tool More than 600 publications are indexed including journals and national general interest publications and newspapers Book Review Index is available in a three issue subscription covering the current year or as an annual cumulation covering the past year Business Week ,2008 The Economist ,1926 The Handbook of Strategic Public Relations and Integrated Marketing Communications, Second Edition Clarke L.
