Bereavement In Late Life Coping Adaptation And Developmental Influences:

Bereavement in Late Life Robert O. Hansson, Margaret S. Stroebe, 2007 Late life is a time when loss becomes more frequent Grief experiences accumulate as many older people grapple with diminishing adaptive reserves changes in cognitive and emotional functioning patterns of social integration loneliness and financial risk In these years bereavement poses an array of difficult issues for coping assessment and intervention In what is certain to become a landmark volume Hansson and Stroebe present a critical review of the literature and dominant theories in the field of bereavement and examine how protective and problematic developmental processes affect the experience of bereavement in late life They argue for a new more fine grained understanding of how the processes of aging and bereavement interact to influence life outcomes adaptive potential coping capacity and successful aging Finally in a series of specific proposals the authors present a path for future research on the bereavement experiences of older adults

The Oxford Handbook of Human Development and Culture Lene Arnett Jensen, 2015 The Oxford Handbook of Human Development and Culture provides a comprehensive synopsis of theory and research on human development with every chapter drawing together findings from cultures around the world This includes a focus on cultural diversity within nations cultural change and globalization Expertly edited by Lene Arnett Jensen the Handbook covers the entire lifespan from the prenatal period to old age It delves deeply into topics such as the development of emotion language cognition morality creativity and religion as well as developmental contexts such as family friends civic institutions school media and work Written by an international group of eminent and cutting edge experts chapters showcase the burgeoning interdisciplinary approach to scholarship that bridges universal and cultural perspectives on human development This cultural developmental approach is a multifaceted flexible and dynamic way to conceptualize theory and research that is in step with the cultural and global realities of human development in the 21st century
