A Guide to Teaching, Parenting and Creating Family Friendly Schools Emma Sheppard, 2022-12-30 At The MTPT Project we know that teaching can be a sustainable career choice for parents and in this essential handbook we show you how. Supported by case studies celebrating the best that the family friendly schools and happy teachers in our community have to offer, this book is a lifeline for both educators aspiring to combine their passion for teaching with becoming a parent and the school leader who wants to empower them. However, you become a parent or choose to grow your family and your career, this handbook will provide you with the guidance and cheerleading that you need to fulfil your personal and professional aspirations. The book is divided into nine chapters guiding readers from the first considerations of family planning all the way through to the reality that some teachers and leaders may choose to leave classrooms for good. Each chapter includes the latest research on working families, legalities associated with different stages of working parenthood including discrimination and how to avoid it as an employer and address it as an employee, case studies from our community, suggestions for individuals and schools, recommended further reading. Each chapter will help you to navigate the journey from planning a family to stepping in and out of teaching to suit your parenting needs to creating family friendly working environments whatever your role in school. With its mixture of research informed solutions, hints and tips, this text is perfect for colleagues embarking on their parenting journey and school leaders who want to take practical steps to retain and empower valued colleagues.
