291). Your new team is working hard, but they're all less experienced than you and don't complete their tasks as quickly.

✓ Ans: Most: Reach out to your manager to discuss the situation. Try to find the best way to help the new associates.

Least: Give your coworkers more time to figure out how to do the tasks. They probably just need more practice with what they've already learned.

292). Your newest coworker is not as productive as other members of your team, you and your coworkers have to work harder to make up for this.

✓ Ans: Most: Give her tips to get things done quickly and correctly.

Least: Talk to your supervisor. Suggest that this might not be the best role for your coworker.

293). Your shift's productivity is slow because one person isn't doing his share, the rest of the team is getting upset.

✓ Ans: Most: Ask your struggling coworker if there's any way you can help because he seems slower today

Least: Talk about the problem with another team member to see what they think.

294). A coworker didn't clean his work area before going home, this could cause an accident, so you quickly clean up. the next day, you see the coworker.

✓ Ans: Most: Tell him he should be more careful because his work area could have caused an accident
