Strategic Sports Marketing - The impact of sport advertising upon consumers Christian Berger, 2008-12-04 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2008 in the subject Sport Sport Economics Sport Management grade 2 0 Cardiff University course International Business Management language English abstract The study was based on the subject that is of great interest of the author and therefore attempted to illustrate an evaluation of the impact of Adidas advertising upon purchase decisions of consumers nowadays To enable the author to provide an evaluation of Adidas marketing strategies the present importance of marketing and modern challenges of advertising decisions were determined as fundamentals of a global brand based on review of relevant literature Furthermore an investigation of the strengths weaknesses opportunities and threats

SWOT related to companies in the sports industry was conducted. Moreover, the benefits of a global brand were illustrated. This examination was mainly based on marketing specialised literature linked with selected examples of Adidas as no representative of the Adidas company was found to be interviewed. On the one hand, it was found that Adidas historically grown passion for sports in order to provide athletes with the best possible equipment positively contributes to improve brand awareness and brand image. On the other, it was found that the identified weaknesses reduce the effectiveness of global operations in order to improve consumer satisfaction throughout the world. The research concluded that although the strategic marketing operations of the Adidas company can be reduced by weaknesses and threats, the advertising decisions represent a promising source of enhancing the brand image.
