Space, Imagination and the Cosmos from Antiquity to the Early Modern Period Frederik A. Bakker,Delphine Bellis,Carla Rita Palmerino,2019-02-05 This volume provides a much needed historically accurate narrative of the development of theories of space up to the beginning of the eighteenth century It studies conceptions of space that were implicitly or explicitly entailed by ancient medieval and early modern representations of the cosmos The authors reassess Alexandre Koyr s groundbreaking work From the Closed World to the Infinite Universe 1957 and they trace the permanence of arguments to be found throughout the Middle Ages and beyond By adopting a long timescale this book sheds new light on the continuity between various cosmological representations and their impact on the ontology and epistemology of space Readers may explore the work of a variety of authors including Aristotle Epicurus Henry of Ghent John Duns Scotus John Wyclif Peter

Auriol Nicholas Bonet Francisco Su rez Francesco Patrizi Giordano Bruno Libert Froidmont Marin Mersenne Pierre Gassendi Gottfried Wilhelm Leibnizand Samuel Clarke We see how reflections on space imagination and the cosmos were the product of a plurality of philosophical traditions that found themselves confronted with and enriched by various scientific and theological challenges which induced multiple conceptual adaptations and innovations This volume is a useful resource for historians of philosophy those with an interest in the history of science and particularly those seeking to understand the historical background of the philosophy of space The National Publisher ,1949 The Federal Reporter ,1915 Includes cases argued and determined in the District Courts of the United States and Mar May 1880 Oct Nov 1912 the Circuit Courts of the United States Sept Dec 1891 Sept Nov 1924 the Circuit Courts of Appeals of the United States Aug Oct 1911 Jan Feb 1914 the Commerce Court of the United States Sept Oct 1919 Sept Nov 1924 the Court of Appeals of the District of Columbia Annual Editions: the Family Kathleen R.
