

Friends Can Show Kindness

Friends can show kindness to each other in many ways.

You can show kindness by taking turns when you play.

Ask your friend if they would like to go "first".

If a friend gets hurt, you can help them get up.

You may need to go get a grownup to come and help.

When a friend is feeling sad, you can cheer them up.

Sometimes a friend just needs someone to listen.

You can invite a lonely child to come and play with you.

If you hear kids making fun of someone, say "Stop!"

Think of how you would feel if it happened to you.

Showing kindness to others is an important thing to do.

A Blueprint for the Promotion of Pro-Social Behavior in Early Childhood Elda Chesebrough, Patricia King, Martin Bloom, Thomas P. Gullotta, 2004-06-24 It is clear that violence by youth is not to be found only on city streets in city schools and among city youth but anywhere and everywhere wrathful disenfranchised young people reside In this volume the editors share their insights on the latest research for how families can promote optimal development in children from birth to age six so they can grow into healthy happy and competent young adults Topics include social emotional learning neighborhood and community influences the role of teachers and other caregivers and more The volume includes the actual Bingham Childhood Prosocial Curriculum so that it can be implemented at any center A Blueprint for the Promotion of Pro Social Behavior in Early Childhood will be a helpful resource for clinical child psychologists school psychologists early childhood educators as well as for upper level students of these areas

Blueprint for a Literate Nation How You Can Help Cinthia Coletti, 2013-10-11 As the inheritors of both the technological innovations of the information age and the social and economic unrest of the world the generation now in our schools will to a great extent determine whether America stays at the top or falls behind in the world order It is imperative therefore that our students master the skills essential to our times but statistics show that a huge majority of American children struggle with the skill most essential to modern life Our society is fueled by literacy and if we do not stand up for these struggling learners now the consequences for both the individuals and society as a whole will be disastrous Although literacy rates are a nationwide issue the solution lies surprisingly close to home Grassroots teams across the country have already begun the movement to reform education and their successes have been monumental All that remains is for the message to spread the spark to ignite You can be the next leader of change voicing a clear and compelling call to action This book will show you how Just as learning difficulties are not the fault of the student ineffective instruction is rarely the fault of the teacher or even of the school district The grassroots teams that have brought such comprehensive reforms to their districts have done so by harnessing all the tools available to them in the high speed interconnected modern world in depth scientific research far reaching social media and direct alliances with influential political champions The Common Core State Standards already implemented in many states are proof of their success With a firm commitment to opening opportunities for the next generation and with the right information to guide you along your journey you too can make a difference in Americas future Making Everyday Choices Lin Josephson,2018-06-18 This book will serve as a Think Button for any educator who has ever heard a student say I can t think or I can t decide Fifty prompts or thinking conduits are the catalysts that will give students a chance to practice thinking The prompts many with option answers are formatted as brief stories exercises poems and activities and are designed so kids can use the same thinking skill sets that are essential in making everyday decisions Whether the prompts pose silly questions Would you rather bathe a gorilla or take an elephant for a walk or practical ones What s the best way to express your opinion they are all crafted to spur children to think hard and sensibly so they can make levelheaded decisions and defend their thinking in a stress free think forum environment The intention is for students to take the essence of something they ve learned from a prompt and adapt it stretch it and use it to help solve a problem or make a tough decision Every prompt comes with guidance explanations and suggestions so educators can clarify why certain options or decisions are better than others and respond to thinking choices and decisions students may have made One-Story Home Plans Sunset Books,1997-09 An Ideological Analysis of Breastfeeding in Contemporary America Loreen N.
