My Idea Of Fun Will Self:

My Idea of Fun Will Self, 2012-09-11 When the young Ian Wharton first meets Mr Broadhurst he is completely unaware of the influence he will come to exert over his life as The Fat Controller a constant companion and confidant and also the obese erudite manifestation of Ian's mental illness As Ian's idea of fun becomes increasingly extreme the reader is taken to a place where morality is eroded by the dull grind of modernity and everything becomes admissible Lord Gnome's Literary Companion Francis Wheen, 1994 His review has got to be in by mid day tomorrow at about 9 pm his mind will grow relatively clear and until the small hours he will sit skipping expertly through one book after another and laying each one down with the comment God what tripe Then suddenly he will snap into it All the stale old phrases a book that no one should miss something memorable on every page jump into their places like iron filings obeying the magnet Thus did George Orwell writing forty years ago in Confessions of a Book Reviewer describe the labours of a typical literary hack Precious little has changed over the intervening decades the servility of the satirical magazine Private Eye Lord Gnome's Literary Companion assembles in thematic order the best of these columns to present an astringent rude and funny survey of publishers and the published The Best Novels of the Nineties Linda Parent Leshner, 2015-11-17 This reader's guide provides uniquely organized and up to date information on the most important and enjoyable contemporary English language novels Offering critically substantiated reading recommendations careful cross referencing and extensive indexing this book is appropriate for both the weekend reader looking for the best new mystery and the full time graduate student hoping to survey the latest in magical realism More than 1 000 titles are included each entry citing major reviews and giving a brief description for each book My Idea of Fun Will Self, 1995 The story of a devilishly clever international financier marketing wizard and his young apprentice My Idea of Fun is both a frighteningly dark subterranean exploration of capitalism run rampant and a wickedly sharp technically acute display of linguistic pyrotechnics that glows with pure white hot brilliance Ian Wharton is a very ordinary young man until he is taken under the wing of a gentleman known variously as Mr Broadhurst Samuel Northcliff and finally and conclusively simply as the Fat Controller Loud mouthed impeccably tailored a fount of bombastic erudition the Fat Controller initiates Ian into the dark secrets of his arts of marketing money and the human psyche and takes Ian and the reader on a wild voyage around the edges of reality Writers Talk Philip Tew, Fiona Tolan, Leigh Wilson, 2008-05-01 Writers Talk includes interviews with Kate Atkinson Pat Barker Jonathan Coe Jim Crace Toby Litt Graham Swift Matt Thorne David Mitchell Alan Warner and Will Self Is it a good time to be a writer in the time of The Da Vinci Code It is not necessarily a good time to be a literary writer Kate Atkinson The best novels allow us to rehearse the world ahead of us to play out the battle before we fight it to experience disaster before we encounter it to practice grief before it flattens us Narrative is useful It confers advantages on us as a species Jim Crace Why do writers write How do they react to criticism of their work What inspires them and how do they go about working Does fiction have any political ethical or spiritual significance

Can we learn more about a book from its author This collection of interviews with contemporary British novelists offers a fascinating insight into bestselling authors views on fiction today their influences and themes readers and critics why they write and their writing process and provides a snapshot of the reality of living as a writer
