Challenging the Boundaries Işıl Baş,Donald C. Freeman,2007 Challenging the Boundaries seeks to transcend the limits of literary genres and national cultures exploring both old and new frontiers in language and literature from an interdisciplinary multifaceted and challenging perspective Selected from the pathbreaking Istanbul conference of the Poetics and Linguistics Association these papers treat topics ranging from contemporary neurobiology s insights into the sources of poetic creativity to the cultural theories of Michel Foucault and H l ne Cixous and their literary consequences from the films of the American director David Lynch to those of the Senegalese artist Djibril Diop Mamb ty from the work of the Turkish novelist Orhan Pamuk to James Joyce s Ulysses and the stories of Virginia Woolf This volume will be of particular interest to readers who might wish to become acquainted with the work of able young scholars from an exceptionally wide array of academic cultures and theoretical commitments The authors whose essays appear in Challenging the Boundaries reflect in their approaches and subjects both the breadth and depth of the international academic community

PALA Papers is a series of volumes comprising essays selected and edited from presentations at the annual conferences of the Poetics and Linguistics Association an international body of scholars whose work focuses on the interdisciplinary nexus of linguistics discourse theory and literary analysis criticism and theory Each volume will present studies that provide models to scholars throughout the world for conducting their own research in this multidisciplinary paradigm on such topics as among many others close linguistic analysis of canonical literary works corpus based studies of literary narrative and the linguistic basis of contemporary social and cultural theory

The Babylonian Planet Sonja Neef,2021-11-04 What is astro culture In The Babylonian Planet it is unfolded as an aesthetic an idea a field of study a position and a practice It helps to engineer the shift from a world view that is segregated to one that is integrated from global to planetary from distance to intimacy and where closeness and cosmic distance live side by side In this tour de force Sonja Neef takes her cue from Edouard Glissant s vision of multilingualism and reignites the myth of the Tower of Babel to anticipate new forms of cultural encounter For her Babel is an organic construction site at which she fuses theoretical analysis and case studies of artists writers and thinkers like William Kentridge Orhan Pamuk and Immanuel Kant Her skilful interrogations then allow her to paint a portrait of art and culture that abolishes the horizon as a barrier to vision and reclaims it as a place of contact and relation By combining the Babylonian concept of the encounter and the planetary concept of the whole earth Neef creates a space an astro culture in which she can examine topics as varied as language translation media modernity migration and the moon In doing so she instigates a renewed cultural understanding receptive to the kinder forms of cultural encounter and globalisation she hopes will come

Re-thinking Europe Nele Bemong,Mirjam Truwant,Pieter Vermeulen,2008 Re Thinking Europe sets out to investigate the place of the idea of Europe in literature and comparative literary studies The essays in this collection turn to the past in which Europe became synonymous with a tradition of peace and tolerance beyond national borders and enter into a critical dialogue with the present in which Europe has increasingly become associated with a history of oppression and violence The different essays together demonstrate how the idea of Europe cannot be thought apart from the tension between the regional and the global between nationalism and pluralism and can therefore be re thought as an opportunity for an identity beyond national or ethnic borders Engaging contemporary discourses on hybrid postcolonial and transnational identity this volume shows how literature can function as both a vital tool to forge new identities and a power subversive of such attempts at identity formation Like Europe it is always marked by the tension between integration and resistance The book will be of interest to students and scholars of modern literature comparative literature and European studies as well as people concerned with cultural memory and the relation between literature and cultural identity

More Matter John Updike,2009-02-19 In this collection of nonfiction pieces John Updike gathers his responses to nearly two hundred invitations into print each an opportunity to make something beautiful to find within oneself a treasure that would otherwise remain buried. Introductions, reviews, and humorous essays, paragraphs on New York religion, and lust here is more matter commissioned by an age that, as the author remarks in his Preface, calls for real stuff, not for the obliquities and tenuosities of fiction. Still, the novelist's shaping hand, his gift for telling detail, can be detected in many of these literary considerations. Books by Edith Wharton, Dawn Powell, John Cheever, and Vladimir Nabokov are incisively treated as are biographies of Isaac Newton, Abraham Lincoln, Queen Elizabeth II, and Helen Keller. As George Steiner observed, Updike writes with a solicitous, almost tender intelligence. The critic and the poet in him are at no odds with the novelist; the same sharpness of apprehension bears on the object in each of Updike's modes.

The Turkish Muse Talat S. Halman, 2006. The Turkish Muse: Views and Reviews 1960s-1990s collects Talat S. Halman's book reviews written in English and read chronologically, providing a unique perspective on the development of Turkish literature and criticism during the formative and later years of the Turkish Republic. The new genres adopted from Europe and to a lesser extent from the United States include the novel, the short story, the stage play, and the essay. The reviews collected in this volume reflect the way in which these genres developed and matured within their new milieu of Turkish letters, establishing each book in its literary, social, and cultural Turkish context. Halman then addresses the work's more international or universal importance. Written over a period of four decades, these reviews illuminate the careers of many writers from their early work to their rise as leading Turkish poets, novelists, and dramatists: İlhan Berk, Melih Cevdet Anday, Günç Dilmen, Fazıl Hüsni Dağlarca, and Yasar Kemal, to name just a few. More recent reviews discuss the work of such important figures as Hilmi Yavuz and Orhan Pamuk.

The Middle East, 1991. The Unreadable Shores of Love Victoria Rowe Holbrook, 1994. Holbrook's is one of the keenest and deepest critical minds in the field of Islamic literature. She provides for the reader, scholar, and lay person alike, fascinating insights into the genre: poetic functions, mystical allegory, narrative technique, audience response, etc. Many of her analyses are scintillating. The Holbrook volume is a landmark in Ottoman literary scholarship. MESA Bulletin, a major contribution to Ottoman and Turkish literary study. I frankly am at a loss to describe how major Dr. Holbrook's book will make its own category, and subsequent publication in the field will be judged in relation to it.

Walter G. Andrews, professor of Near Eastern Languages and Civilization, University of Washington. When the Ottoman Turkish Empire was divided into modern states after World War I in Turkey, a change of alphabet and radical linguistic reform aimed to free modern Turkish literature from intellectual ties to the East. Holbrook recuperates Ottoman debates on the existential status of language and social value of art with a poetics of Beauty and Love, the philosophical fairy tale in verse by Seyh Galib. Where does language come from? How does a poet conceive imagery? What rights to interpretive authority does Muslim law accord the individual when God's word is law? Holbrook's lively analysis ranges an intertext of genres in Arabic and Persian as well as Turkish The romance of separated lovers is a paradigm of journeys that lead beyond discourse A poet's quest for originality reveals an archaeology of modernism Holbrook traces the revolutionary polemic and Orientalist philology that de aestheticized Ottoman poetry bringing the critique of Orientalism to bear upon the Ottoman center Orientalism suppressed The Real Guide, Turkey Rosie Ayliffe, 1991 Bring the world a little closer with these multicultural books An excellent way for students to appreciate and learn cultural diversity in an exciting hands on format Each book explores the history language holidays festivals customs legends foods creative arts lifestyles and games of the title country A creative alternative to student research reports and a time saver for teachers since the activities and resource material are contained in one book Transylvanian Review ,1997 The Eighth Day John Case, 2005-07 From the powerful world of Washington D C to the ancient grandeur of Rome from the mysteries of Istanbul to the high stakes drama of Silicon Valley The Eighth Day is a briskly paced globe trotting thriller of electrifying suspense
