This workbook provides a plethora of effective tools, traditional as well as innovative, that can be used in whole or as a part of a course of therapy and also as self-help. The variety of options offered goes a long way towards dispelling the unfortunately popular misconception that there are only a limited number of interventions that help people to recover from trauma. Survivors as well as therapists who have been frustrated by the rigidity of strict adherence to evidence-based practice will be greatly relieved to find a wealth of useful strategies to experiment, evaluate, and sort into a personally tailored trauma recovery program. This workbook is a godsend for the trauma field, expanding the possibilities for recovery in a most generous way.

Richard Schwartz, Ph.D., author of Internal Family Systems Therapy. 101 Trauma Informed Interventions provides an accessible, functional playbook for therapists committed to the rehabilitation of the client with a trauma history. Underlying this eclectic strategy is the common theme emphasizing that healing will only begin when the trauma-related feelings embedded in the body are appreciated.

Porges, Ph.D., author of The Polyvagal Theory: An interesting compendium of potential interventions that can be interwoven into any therapist's existing conceptual framework. Louis Cozolino, Ph.D., Pepperdine University and author of 5 books, including the best seller The Neuroscience of Psychotherapy: Healing the Social Brain, 2nd edition.
