Performing Early Christian Literature Kelly Iverson, 2021-10-07 Scholars of early Christian literature acknowledge that oral traditions lie behind the New Testament gospels While the concept of orality is widely accepted it has not resulted in a corresponding effort to understand the reception of the gospels within their oral milieu In this book Kelly Iverson reconsiders the experiential context in which early Christian literature was received and interpreted He argues that reading and performance are distinguishable media events and significantly that they produce distinctive interpretive experiences for readers and audiences alike Iverson marshals an array of methodological perspectives demonstrating how performance generates a unique experiential context that shapes and informs the interpretive process Iverson's study explores the dynamic oral environment in which ancient audiences experienced the gospel stories He shows why an understanding of oral performance has important implications for the study of the NT as well as for several issues that are largely unquestioned by biblical scholars

The Eight Universal Dimensions of Culture from a Synthesis of Cultural Taxonomies Sophie Kunert, 2022-08-29 The crucial element of this book constitutes the synthesis of cultural dimensions from existing cultural taxonomies extended by the operationalization of the eight identified Universal Dimensions of Culture UDCs into a questionnaire First an extensive Systematic Literature Review SLR is pursued to identify the current state of research demonstrating the research gap on a unified approach for classifying national cultures into cultural dimensions Eight assumptions displaying the eight UDCs are derived from the results of the SLR Subsequently an evaluation and selection framework for identifying the research base of comparable existing cultural taxonomies is developed A research base of 11 cultural taxonomies and 50 cultural dimensions is retrieved These serve as the basis for developing the eight UDCs following a synthesis process and protocol The eight UDCs are operationalized into a questionnaire which is extensively pre tested by experts and in the field An example country study for Germany Canada and Brazil is conducted and the corresponding country profiles for the eight UDCs are displayed
