

The Tyger

Tyger Tyger, burning bright,
In the forests of the night:
What immortal hand or eye,
Could frame thy fearful symmetry?

In what distant deeps or skies,
Burnt the fire of thine eyes?
On what wings dare he aspire?
What the hand, dare seize the fire?

And what shoulder, & what art,
Could twist the sinews of thy heart?
And when thy heart began to beat,
What dread hand? & what dread feet?

What the hammer? what the chain,
In what furnace was thy brain?
What the anvil? what dread grasp,
Dare its deadly terrors clasp!

When the stars drew down their spears,
And wat'ry heaven with their tears:
Did he smile his work to see?
Did he who made the Lamb make thee?

Tyger, Tyger, burning bright,
In the forests of the night:
What immortal hand or eye,
Dare frame thy fearful symmetry?

Encyclopedia of British Writers, 16th, 17th, and 18th Centuries Book Builders LLC.,2005 Presents a two volume A to Z reference on English authors from the sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth centuries providing information about major figures key schools and genres biographical information author publications and some critical analyses The Quality of Literature Willie van Peer,2008 Evaluation is central to literary studies and has led to an impressive list of publications on the status and history of the canon Yet it is remarkable how little attention has been given to the role of textual properties in evaluative processes Most of the chapters in The Quality of Literature redress this issue by dealing with texts or genres ranging from classical antiquity via Renaissance to twentieth century They provide a rich textual and historical panorama of how critical debate over literary quality has influenced our modes of thinking and feeling about literature and how they continue to shape the current literary landscape Four theoretical chapters reflect on the general state of literary evaluation while the introduction weaves the different threads together aiming at further conceptual clarification This book thus contributes to a deeper understanding of the problems that are at the heart of past and present debates over literary quality
