Rural Development Putting The Last First Robert Chambers:

Rural Development Robert Chambers,1983 Rural poverty is often unseen or misperceived by outsiders Dr Chambers contends that researchers scientists administrators and fieldworkers rarely appreciate the richness and validity of rural people s knowledge or the hidden nature of rural poverty This is a challenging book for all concerned with rural development as practitioners academics students or researchers

Whose Reality Counts? Robert Chambers,1997 This book is a sequel to Rural development putting the last first AL 1719 BRN 32006 It explores methods and approaches of participatory rural appraisal PRA which because of its wide application should according to the author be changed to participatory learning and action PLA

Fifty Key Thinkers on Development David Simon,2006 The essential guide to the world s most influential development thinkers this authoritative text presents a unique guide to the lives and ideas of leading contributors to the contested terrain of development studies Reflecting the diverse interdisciplinary nature of the area the book includes entries on modernisers like Hirshman Kindleberger and Rostow dependencistas such as Frank Cardoso and Amin progressives like Prebisch Helleiner and Streeten political leaders enunciating radical alternative visions of development such as Mao Nkrumah and Nyerere progenitors of religiously or spiritually inspired development such as Gandhi and Ariyaratne development environment thinkers like Blaikie Brookfield and Shiva This is a fascinating and readable introduction to the major figures that have shaped the field ideal for anyone studying or working in the area

The Participant Christopher M. Kelty,2020-01-21 Participation is everywhere today It has been formalized measured standardized scaled up network enabled and sent around the world Platforms algorithms and software offer to make participation easier but new technologies have had the opposite effect We find ourselves suspicious of how participation extracts our data or monetizes our emotions and the more procedural participation becomes the more it seems to recede from our grasp In this book Christopher M Kelty traces four stories of participation across the twentieth century showing how they are part of a much longer term problem in relation to the individual and collective experience of representative democracy Kelty argues that in the last century or so the power of participation has dwindled over time it has been formatted in ways that cramp and dwarf it even as the drive to participate has spread to nearly every kind of human endeavor all around the world The Participant is a historical ethnography of the concept of participation investigating how the concept has evolved into the form it takes today It is a book that asks Why do we participate And sometimes Why do we refuse

Applied Ethnography Pertti J Pelto,2016-06-16 This comprehensive engaging guide to applied research distills the expertise of the distinguished ethnographer and methodologist Pertti Pelto over his acclaimed 50 year career Having written the first major text promoting mixed qualitative and quantitative methods in applied ethnography in the 1970s Pelto now synthesizes decades of innovation including examples from around the world that illustrate how specific methods yield immediate results for addressing social problems Ideal for researchers students training programs and technical assistance
