Solutions Turkiye B1:

Turkey's Kurdish Question Henri J. Barkey, Graham E. Fuller, 2000-01-01 The Kurds one of the oldest ethnic groups in the Middle East are reasserting their identity politically and through violence Divided mainly among Turkey Iran Iraq and Syria the Kurds have posed increasingly sharp challenges to all of these states in their quest for greater autonomy if not outright independence Turkey's essentially democratic structure and civil society_ideal tools for coping with and incorporating minority challenge_ have so far been suspended on this issue which the government is treating almost exclusively as a security problem to be dealt with by force For the West the situation in Turkey is particularly significant because of the country's importance in the region and because of the economic political and diplomatic damage that the conflict has caused If Turkey fails to find a peaceful solution within its current borders then the outlook is grim for ethnic and separatist challenges elsewhere in the region This study explores the roots dimensions character and evolution of the problem offers a range of approaches to a resolution of the conflict and draws broader parallels between the Kurdish question and other separatist movements worldwide

The Economics of Migration of Highly Skilled Workers from Türkiye Hasan Gürak, 2026-03-21 This book examines the migration of highly skilled labour from developing countries to developed ones and assesses the economics costs associated with this By highlighting the impact of migration on developing countries it outlines the development challenges created by the loss of highly skilled workers especially the loss of specialised knowledge With a particular focus on the movement of labour from Türkiye to the rest of the world the inability of Türkiye to grow its own IT and engineering industries is discussed alongside attempts to retain highly skilled labour This book offers a new perspective on global migration and the hidden economic costs associated with it It will be relevant to students researchers and policymakers interested in labour and development economics

New Turkey and the Far Right Selim Koru, 2025-02-20 Turkey is among a league of revisionist powers who are challenging the world order Erdogan and his Islamist movement have aimed to create the New Turkey preparing for a future that is less dependent on Western treaty allies and with an alliance structure of its own This book is about the political ideas driving Turkey's regime change and foreign policy It de exceptionalizes Turkish politics arguing that the New Turkey is part of a global trend of far right nationalist movements like that of Donald Trump in the United States or Narendra Modi in India In particular the book reveals how far right nationalist strands in Turkey have been nurtured by an existential resentment of the West similar to those we are seeing in Russia In tracing this resentment and its historical roots the book invites policymakers and experts to better understand the new relationships Turkey is building with fellow revisionists including China and Russia as well as Turkey's involvement in the wars in Syria and Ukraine and Erdogan's grand strategy for expansion The book is based on interviews with senior politicians and civil servants from across the country's political spectrum It also benefits from the author's personal knowledge of Turkey's far right and Islamist traditions
