Transforming Teamwork Diane P. Zimmerman, James L. Roussin, Robert J. Garmston, 2019-08-08. Discover how psychological safety, constructive conflict, and actionable learning create a powerful triple helix to transform teams. In this ground-breaking resource, three experts in the field of education and teamwork each present one of three strands that when woven together support teamwork and forge collaborative interactions into a transformative way of working. You'll learn approaches, processes, and tools to overcome common obstacles to team effectiveness such as feelings of futility, anxiety, and poor morale. Drawing on research and practical experience, the authors identify strategies and tools that show how to build psychological safety where teams work towards resilient interpersonal relationships. Use constructive conflict as a powerful catalyst for team learning and transformation. Inquire into problems of practice to transform capabilities and produce actionable learning. Acquire ways to develop mindful, thoughtful, and constructive teams where authentic communication
