Upton, Justin O'Brien, 2021 Vogue trained Emily Weiss created a USD 1.2 billion valued social media beauty business from scratch spun out from her side project blog Into the Gloss Weiss spotted a clear gap in the market for a fully integrated beauty advice community for real rather than idealized women The vertically integrated Glossier brand used data analytics and insight gleaned from community posts and feedback to provide a powerful understanding of its audience This enabled the development of compelling and highly engaging advice content and the capability to effectively identify unsatisfied product formulation needs A bottom up customer centric launch strategy using sophisticated search engine optimization a strong focus on user experience and a distinctive communications style all helped to differentiate the new brand of Glossier from its better known and better financed competitors Weiss recognized early on that her company needed to maintain her blog's original voice and brand identity whilst simultaneously scaling up to fund investment in leading digital marketing tech Through the application of insightful user generated content strategies the Glossier management team were able to cut costs build awareness and maintain their voice in an authentic way But as big brands wised up to community based social marketing techniques and large influencers eyed lucrative direct to consumer beauty product brand extensions could Emily Weiss's Glossier continue to be a trailblazing success This student academic co created case study uses only publicly available information It is designed to encourage marketing students to appreciate how innovative search engine optimization practice and a powerful direct to consumer business model was used to scale a passion blog into a unicorn beauty community by leveraging user generated content and peer to peer recommendation Glossy Marisa Meltzer, 2024-06-04 INSTANT NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Financial Times Best Book of the Year The compulsively readable narrative of beauty business privilege and mogul dom The New York Times that reveals for the first time exactly what happened at Glossier one of America's hottest and most consequential startups and dives deep into the enigmatic visionary woman responsible for it all Called one of the most disruptive brands in beauty by Forbes Glossier revolutionized the beauty industry with its sophisticated branding and unique approach to influencer marketing almost instantly making the company a juggernaut with rabid fans It also taught a generation of business leaders how to talk to Millennial and Gen Z customers and build a cult following online At the center of the story lies Emily Weiss the elusive former Teen Vogue superintern on the reality show The Hills turned Into the Gloss beauty blogger who had the vision guts

and searing ambition needed to launch Glossier She cannily turned every experience every meeting into an opportunity to fuel her own personal success Together with her expensive signature style and singular vision for the future of consumerism she could not be stopped Just how did a girl from suburban Connecticut with no real job experience work her way into the bathrooms and boudoirs of the most influential names in the world and build that access into a 1.9 billion dollar business Is she solely responsible for its success And why eight years later at the height of Glossier mania did she step down In Glossy journalist and author Marisa Meltzer combines in depth interviews with former Glossier employees investors and Weiss herself to bring you inside the walls of this fascinating and secretive company From fundraising to product launches and unconventional hiring practices Meltzer exposes the inner workings of Glossier's culture culminating in the story of Weiss herself The Devil Wears Prada for the Bad Blood generation Glossy is not just a gripping portrait of one of the most important business leaders of her generation but also a chronicle of an era

Glossier Arpita Agnihotri,Saurabh Bhattacharya,2023 The case explains how the direct to consumer beauty company Glossier Inc Glossier leveraged beauty content written on founder Emily Weiss s blog Into the Gloss to develop beauty products Into the Gloss was a collaborative blog where women shared their beauty routines and products Weiss realized that the definition of beauty for ordinary women was not as prevalent in other cosmetic companies that showcased ideal skin through makeup In contrast Glossier customers believed in natural beauty Accordingly Glossier developed beauty products ranging from skincare to fragrance and introduced the notion of confident beauty with low maintenance. Because Weiss emphasized natural beauty, she chose Grammy Award Winner Olivia Rodrigo, who believed in natural beauty and minimal makeup, as Glossier's celebrity endorser. However, Weiss was not transparent enough about the ingredients used in products, which ultimately sparked criticism. Another criticism was quality, and how Glossier's skincare products failed to work for women with unique skin types. Another concern for Weiss was pursuing further growth. What growth strategies can Weiss opt for? Is celebrity endorsement likely to be an inhibitor or a contributor to the growth strategy of Glossier?
