Evil Eye, Jinn Possession, and Mental Health Issues G. Hussein Rassool, 2018-09-03 Evil Eye Jinn Possession and Mental Health Issues raises awareness of the cultural considerations religion and spirituality involved in the assessment of Muslim patients with mental health problems The belief that Jinn spirits can cause mental illness in humans through affliction or possession is widely accepted among Muslims meaning this belief is a crucial but frequently overlooked aspect of mental health problems with Muslim patients in psychiatric care This book explores the nature of such beliefs their relationship to mental health and the reasons for their importance in clinical practice The book argues that it is vital to consider mental disorders as a multifactorial affair in which spiritual social psychological and physical factors may all play a role It suggests differential diagnostic skills may have an important part to play in offering help to those who believe their problems are caused by possession and provides accessible literature on clinical issues and practice interventions management and evidence based practice to help health workers achieve a better understanding of Muslim beliefs about possession and how to work with patients that hold such beliefs

Evil Eye Jinn Possession and Mental Health Issues is an essential manual for mental health professionals social workers and psychologists It should also be of interest to academics and students in the healthcare sciences

Sources and Methods in Indigenous Studies Chris Andersen, Jean M. O'Brien, 2016-12-19 Sources and Methods in Indigenous Studies is a synthesis of changes and innovations in methodologies in Indigenous Studies focusing on sources over a broad chronological and geographical range Written by a group of highly respected Indigenous Studies scholars from across an array of disciplines this collection offers insight into the methodological approaches contributors take to research and how these methods have developed in recent years The book has a two part structure that looks firstly at the theoretical and disciplinary movement of Indigenous Studies within history literature anthropology and the social sciences Chapters in this section reveal that while engaging with other disciplines Indigenous Studies has forged its own intellectual path by borrowing and innovating from other fields In part two the book examines the many different areas with which sources for indigenous history have been engaged including the importance of family gender feminism and sexuality as well as various elements of expressive culture such as material culture literature and museums Together the chapters offer readers an overview of the dynamic state of the field in Indigenous Studies This book shines a spotlight on the ways in which scholarship is transforming Indigenous Studies in methodologically innovative and exciting ways and will be essential reading for students and scholars in the field Democracy in a Time of Misery Nicole Curato, 2019-08-29 Democracy in a Time of Misery From Spectacular Tragedy to Deliberative Action investigates how democratic politics can unfold in creative and unexpected ways even at the most trying of times Drawing on three years of fieldwork in disaster affected communities in Tacloban City Philippines this book presents ethnographic portraits of how typhoon survivors actively perform their suffering to secure political gains Each chapter traces how victims are transformed to publics that gain voice and visibility in the global public sphere through disruptive protests collaborative projects and political campaigns that elected the strongman Rodrigo Duterte to presidency It also examines the micropolitics of silencing that lead communities to withdraw and lose interest in politics These ethnographic descriptions come together in a theoretical project that makes a case for a multimodal view of deliberative action It underscores the embodied visual performative and subtle ways in which affective political claims are constructed and received It concludes by arguing that while emotions play a role in amplifying marginalized political claims it also creates hierarchies of misery that renders some forms of suffering more deserving of compassion than others The book invites readers to reflect on challenging ethical issues when examining political contexts defined by widespread depravity and dispossession and the democratic ethos demanded of global publics in responding to others suffering

Advances in Bioengineering and Clinical Engineering Fernando Emilio Ballina, Ricardo Armentano, Rubén Carlos Acevedo, Gustavo Javier Meschino, 2024-06-07 This book offers a timely snapshot of research technologies and best practices in the broad area of bioengineering and clinical engineering Contributions report on advances in biomedical signal processing biosystem models and 3D printing applications clinical engineering and neuromuscular system analysis and rehabilitation engineering They also cover developments in bioengineering education Gathering the second volume of the proceedings of the XXIV Argentinian Congress of Bioengineering SABI 2023 held on October 3 6 2023 in Buenos Aires Argentina and organised by the Sociedad Argentina de Bioingenier a this book provides an extensive source of information for both researchers and professionals in biomedical and clinical engineering

Perspectives in Motion Brian Diettrich, 2021-03-10 Focusing on visual approaches to performance in global cultural contexts Perspectives in Motion explores the work of Adrienne L Kaeppler a pioneering researcher who has made a number of interdisciplinary contributions over five decades to dance and performance studies Through a diverse range of case studies from Oceania Asia and Europe and interdisciplinary approaches this edited collection offers new critical and ethnographic frameworks for understanding and experiencing practices of music and dance across the globe

Communal Intimacy and the Violence of Politics Steffen Bo Jensen, Karl Hapal, 2022-05-15 Communal Intimacy and the Violence of Politics explores the notoriously brutal Philippine war on drugs from below Steffen Bo Jensen and Karl Hapal examine how the war on drugs folded itself into communal and intimate spheres in one Manila neighborhood Bagong Silang Police killings have been regular occurrences since the birth of Bagong Silang Communal Intimacy and the Violence of Politics shows that although the drug war was introduced from the outside it fit into and perpetuated already existing gendered and generational structures In Bagong Silang the war on drugs implicated local structures of authority including a justice system that had always been deeply integrated into communal relations The ways in which the war on drugs transformed these intimate relations between the state and its citizens and between neighbors may turn out to be the most lasting impact of Duterte s infamously violent policies

Class and Politics in Malaysian and Singaporean Nation Building Muhamad M. N. Nadzri, 2025-05-23
Nadzri explores a range of factors that have influenced nation building in Malaysia and Singapore with principal emphasis on the importance of social and economic class In contrast to previous studies on nation building which overwhelmingly rely on the explanatory power of culture race and ethnic community the book foregrounds the importance of social and economic status The three main themes explored in this book are how the nation building projected in each country is driven by the class interests of its ruling elites how elections have impacted the politics of nation building and how each country s nation building policies are designed to build political loyalty and support for the ruling elites The comparability of analytical outcomes using the prism of class interests uncovers the limitations of the explanatory power of race ethnic community and culture in understanding the social and political dynamics of the two countries A valuable read for scholars and students of politics in Malaysia and Singapore that will also be of interest to scholars of comparative approaches to nation building
