Queer Injustice:

Queer (In)Justice Joey L. Mogul, Andrea J. Ritchie, Kay Whitlock, 2011-02-15 The first comprehensive work to turn a queer eye on the criminal justice system providing an eye opening study of LGBTQ rights and equality Drawing on years of research activism and legal advocacy Queer In Justice is a searing examination of queer experiences as suspects defendants prisoners and survivors of crime The authors unpack queer criminal archetypes from gleeful gay killers and lethal lesbians to disease spreaders and deceptive gender benders to illustrate the punishment of queer expression regardless of whether a crime was ever committed Tracing stories from the streets to the bench to behind prison bars the authors prove that the policing of sex and gender both bolsters and reinforces racial and gender inequalities An eye opening study of LGBTQ rights and equality Queer In Justice illuminates and challenges the many ways in which queer lives are criminalized policed and punished

Queer (in)justice Joey L. Mogul, Andrea J. Ritchie, Kay Whitlock, 2011 Draws on years of research activism and legal advocacy to present an examination of the gay experience illustrating the continuing punishment of gay expression in the United States and illuminating strategies for change Activist Identity Development of Transgender Social Justice Activists and Educators Ksenija Joksimović, 2020-03-02 Activist Identity Development of Transgender Social Justice Activists and Educators introduces an anti oppressive critical and intersectional approach to social justice activism and education and adult education for social change This book examines how state governments laws policies institutions and systems of dominant hegemonic ideologies such as education systems the legal systems and their gatekeepers influence the social position and epistemic agency of transgender and gender non conforming people TGNC therefore shaping their social justice activist and educator identity development The research was conducted with eight TGNC social justice activists and educators from eight different countries who were at the time in leadership positions in organizations working on the advancement of LGBTQI human rights This volume seeks not only to understand and interpret power structures power relations and inequalities in society which determine social positionality of trans activists and influence the formation and development of their activist identity but also to challenge them by raising critical consciousness questioning dominant cultural political and social domains which determine knowledge production It advocates for a trans affirming intersectional approach to educational provision theory and research Spatial Futures LaToya E. Eaves, Heidi J. Nast, Alex G. Papadopoulos, 2024-05-11 Spatial Futures invites readers to imagine power and freedom through the lens of the Black Outdoors a transdisciplinary spatial concept that operates beyond the planetary stratigraphic confines of the Anthropocene The chapters collectively point to the ontological epistemological contradictions involved in forging liberatory spatial futures Bringing new spatial imaginaries to bear in and outside geography the book refuses the strictures of the cenic entertaining difference as world making Queering Black Churches Brandon Thomas Crowley, 2024 Queering Black Churches explores how open and affirming ONA historically Black churches have queered their congregations Using the lenses of practical theology ecclesiology Queer theology and gender studies Brandon Thomas Crowley examines the heteronormative histories theologies morals values and structures of Black churches and how their longstanding assumptions can be challenged to dismantle homophobia within African American congregations and move beyond surface level allyship toward actual structural renovation Children's Literature and Culture Rebecca Rowe,2025-08-08 Children s Literature and Culture An Introduction guides readers in the study of culture in around and through children s literature Children s literature has long been used as a mechanism by which a culture passes its values from one generation to the next Because of this culturally didactic purpose children s literature can be viewed as one of the most fruitful areas of study of any given culture At the same time studying the cultures from which works of children s literature emerge and in which they circulate can also help better understand not only the ideas of childhood that underpin individual texts for children but the role they play in the construction and transmission of different cultural ideologies This book teaches readers this double work of using culture to understand children s literature and vice versa This volume traces the scholarly methodologies and histories that have attended the study of each of the 20 chapters given subject from the representation of race in and around children s literature to questions of censorship to how libraries can and do shape children s literature In the process it prepares readers to confidently enter and forward scholarly debates and to teach such debates to their own students Handbook on Inequalities in Sentencing and Corrections among Marginalized Populations Eileen M. Ahlin,Ojmarrh Mitchell,Cassandra A. Atkin-Plunk,2022-10-11 The Handbook on Inequalities in Sentencing and Corrections among Marginalized Populations offers state of the art volumes on seminal and topical issues that span the fields of sentencing and corrections The volume is a comprehensive and fresh approach to examining sentencing and community and institutional corrections The book includes empirical and theoretical essays and recent developments on the pressing concerns of persons of traditionally non privileged statuses including racial and ethnic minorities indigenous populations gender immigrant status LGBTQ transgender disability aging veterans and other marginalized statuses The handbook considers a wide range of perspectives for understanding the experiences of persons who identify as a member of a traditionally marginalized group This volume aims to help scholars and graduate students by providing an up to date guide to contemporary issues facing corrections and sentencing It will also assist practitioners with resources for developing socially informed policies and practices This collection of essays contributes to the knowledge base by summarizing what is known in each area and identifying emerging areas for theoretical empirical and policy work This is Volume 7 of The ASC Division on Corrections and Sentencing Handbook Series The handbooks provide in depth coverage of seminal and topical issues around sentencing and corrections for scholars students practitioners and policymakers Activist Leadership for Inclusive Schools Zuhra Abawi,Ardavan Eizadirad,Stephanie Tuters,Andrew B. Campbell,2025-03-13 Activist Leadership for Inclusive Schools explores courageous methods for educational leadership and principalship in Canada to move beyond additive discourses of diversity to dismantling systems of oppression for thriving schools and communities It is a timely collection rooted in diverse approaches to activism that names disrupts and challenges dominant leadership discourses and practices that perpetuate harm to underserved communities Throughout Canada educational policies and mandates are often implemented without meaningful collaboration with the students families and communities they are intended to serve thereby exacerbating systemic structural and institutional barriers The collection s social justice approach to activism and leadership bridges gaps between policies institutions and communities It calls for a more just education system that carves out spaces of belonging by honouring the lived experiences identities and intersectionalities of all students This book is an invaluable resource for Canadian university education programs with courses focusing on educational leadership diversity social justice or inclusive education It also serves educational administration existing teachers principals higher education instructors and researchers policy makers and activists
