History Of Calligraphy:

A History of Calligraphy Albertine Gaur, 1994 Calligraphy can be said to have developed among three of the world's major civilizations the Arabs and those who use the Arabic script whose tradition centres on the preservation of the divine revelation through the Koran the Chinese and those who use Chinese script and the Europeans who adopted the Roman script and laws within a Christian tradition In this wide ranging and heavily illustrated study Albertine Gaur explores the history of calligraphy and the place of calligraphers from the earliest times to the present day within all three of these very different cultures In addition she discusses the tools for writing and the development of calligraphy in relation to printing and typography and examines current trends and the work of contemporary calligraphers

A History of Chinese Calligraphy

Youhe Zeng, 1993 Chinese calligraphy has been an independent visual art form for thousands of years Its wonderful aesthetics has inspired the art of Chinese painting since the second century B C Before pen and pencil were introduced to China millions practiced the art of writing in ink In the twentieth century the art of calligraphy has not only fascinated modern Chinese who are part of this continuous tradition but has also captured the interest and imagination of the world This is the first proper history of Chinese calligraphy in English

The History of Arabic Calligraphy - an Essay on its greatest Artists and its Development Stefan Widany, 2011-06-16 Essay from the year 2010 in the subject Orientalism Sinology Arabistic grade 10 course Historia y Cultura rabo Isl mica language English abstract In this Essay I will give a general overview of the development of Arabic Calligraphy from its beginning till today The reader will soon learn that the evolution of this elaborate and complex art was always closely linked to great personalities Artists that in its early times formed and systematized this art later brought it to its peaks and in the last centuries revised and modernized it Writing about the History of Calligraphy will therefore be writing about a line of persons that step by step on succeeded by another defined Arabic calligraphy in their time and in its whole brought it to where it is today As Calligraphy is the art of elaborated writing it is of course closely linked to script and language The Arabic language developed already before the coming of Islam<sup>1</sup> but Arabic calligraphy as an art with different styles uses and a certain place in society was a phenomena that appeared in the time of the first great empires That is why I will focus on the development in and after this times That means I m not gonna investigate preislamic Arabic calligraphy or look at the development of the Arabic language and its aesthetic aspects fields that would provide enough material for interesting researches for its own As the art I will write about has been performed for many centuries and in a great extend there are many old and new works in display around the work In the appendix some of them will be shown to give examples and make this essay a little more than just a historical investigation
