Improving Educational Outcomes of English Language Learners in Schools and Programs in Boston Public Schools Miren Uriarte,Faye Karp,Laurie Gagnon,Rosann Tung,Sarah Rustan,Jie Chen,Michael Berardino,Pamela Stazesky,2011 Identifying Success in Schools and Programs for English Language Learners in Boston Public Schools of which this report is one part is a project commissioned by the Boston Public Schools as part of this process of change set in motion by the intervention of the state and the federal governments on behalf of Boston s English language learners The project is being conducted at the request of the Office for English Language Learners and is a collaboration among this Office the Mauricio Gaston Institute for Latino Community Development and Public Policy at the University of Massachusetts Boston and the Center for Collaborative Education in Boston The research aspect of this project entails two parts The first contained in this report is a quantitative analysis of enrollment and educational outcomes for Boston s ELLs in SY2009 with selected analyses of trends between SY2006 and SY2009 This analysis supports aspects of the required monitoring of English language learner programs and provides the district with the 2009 baseline that will support its ongoing assessment of programmatic strengths and weaknesses as it undertakes the brisk process of improvement in the programs offered to English language learners The project also entails a close qualitative examination of the practices at four BPS schools which are beating the odds in educating ELLs Detailed case studies of the four schools were conducted two of the schools performed substantially above the level that would be predicted by their demographic characteristics alone and two showed recent steady improvement in outcomes controlling for any changes in student demographics These case studies appear in a companion report entitled Learning from Consistently High Performing and Improving Schools for English Language Learners in Boston Public Schools This report begins with an explanation of the approach taken to conduct the quantitative analysis followed by its findings regarding the enrollment and demographics of students in different types of programs and schools of different characteristics This is followed by a discussion of the educational outcomes of LEP students that considers their demographic characteristics the characteristics of the schools in which they are enrolled and the types of programs in which they participate Appended are 1 Methods 2 Additional Tables for Chapters III to VIII 3 Characteristics and Outcomes of LEP Students with Disabilities and 4 Additional HLM Results Individual chapters contain endnotes Contains 15 figures and 75 tables This paper was written with Eileen de los Reyes and Antonieta Bolomey For Improving Educational Outcomes of English Language Learners in Schools and Programs in Boston Public Schools Executive Summary see ED540996

Multilingual Learners and Academic Literacies Daniella Molle,Edynn Sato,Timothy Boals,Carol A. Hedgspeth,2015-03-05 Shifting the discourse from a focus on academic language to the more dynamic but less researched construct of academic literacies this volume addresses three key questions What constitutes academic literacy What does academic literacy development in adolescent multilingual students look like and how can this development be assessed What classroom contexts foster the development of academic literacies in multilingual adolescents The contributing authors provide divergent definitions of academic literacies and use dissimilar theoretical and methodological approaches to study literacy development Nevertheless all chapters reflect a shared conceptual framework for examining academic literacies as situated overlapping meaning making practices This framework foregrounds students participation in valued disciplinary literacy practices Emphasized in the new college and career readiness standards the notion of disciplinary practices allows the contributing authors to bridge the language content dichotomy and take a more holistic as well as nuanced view of the demands that multilingual students face in general education classrooms The volume also explores the implications of the emphasis on academic literacy practices for classroom instruction research and policy
