A Practical Guide to Ethics Rita Manning, Scott R. Stroud, 2018-05-04 This essential new text is designed for courses in contemporary moral issues applied ethics and leadership Emphasizing personal choice in the study of ethics the authors take the reader on a journey of self discovery rather than a mere academic survey of the field of ethics A Practical Guide to Ethics Living and Leading with Integrity helps students develop their skills in ethical decision making and put those decisions into effective practice Its unique focus on leadership especially the moral dimensions of understanding one's own values teaches students to understand and through dialog and negotiation communicate their own beliefs as a step to building coalitions with those who may hold different views It is also distinctive in combining ethical theory with both multicultural ethics Confucianism Hinduism Islam feminism and a practical orientation to moral decision making and leadership

Persuasion and Influence in American Life Gary C. Woodward, Robert E. Denton, Jr., 2013-12-23 For more than twenty five years the authors have highlighted the complexities subtleties and pervasive influence of persuasive messages The seventh edition again blends historical rhetorical and social psychological approaches to persuasion theory The engaging discussions and multiple examples introduce the intricacies of social influence and highlight methods of presentation as well as evaluation The dynamic topic of persuasion presents a constantly changing palette for analysis The authors dissect theory and practice in multiple contexts from interpersonal interactions to public communication and persuasive campaigns to advertising to politics Twitter YouTube and social networking sites offer new media for persuasive appeals The means of persuading one another changes constantly yet much of what was written by Aristotle continues to be relevant The production of persuasive messages and the study of message effects have been and will continue to be fertile ground for exploration Persuasion is an interactive process requiring willing and attentive participants Becoming responsible ethical and credible persuaders involves systematic thinking and informed preparation The skills required for planning composing and delivering effective messages are equally useful for evaluating messages received The seventh edition provides a thorough up to date discussion of classic and contemporary theories of persuasion to aid readers in developing skills as effective persuaders and as critical consumers of persuasive messages
