Living the Extraordinary Life Workbook Charles F. Stanley, 2006-07-18 To many in the world the Christian faith is a set of rules and regulations But Jesus himself did not teach his followers in sets of dos and don'ts instead Jesus taught them foundational principles to live by In Living the Extraordinary Life Workbook Charles Stanley will walk you through these principles and teach you how to live a truly extraordinary life You will learn Your life is a Masterpiece Waiting on God is not a passive act Disappointments are inevitable but discouragement is a choice You were created with eternity in your heart God assumes full responsibility for your needs when you obey Him Using examples from his own personal experiences biblical personalities and case studies Dr Stanley demonstrates how these key life principles impact life in the 21st century and how they make us as Christians different from those who live their lives according to preference rather than principles The Living Landscape Frederick R. Steiner, 1991 This third year postgraduate text for courses in Landscape or Environmental Architecture covers the entire planning process from an ecological perspective It is organized around a series of conventional planning steps beginning with why to plan including the identification of problems and opportunities continuing through the various stages of inventory and analysis and arriving at the adoption of a plan complete with community involvement design implementation and administration The ecological perspective of the book stresses the interrelationships between people and nature Case studies are used to illustrate how planning has been used to address environmental issues Living as a Christian Maxie D. Dunnam, 1994-09-15 This book is a seven week daily resource for Christians who want to strengthen their personal relationship with Jesus Each day involves 3-4 pages of reading followed by personal reflection Daily reflection and recording help individuals integrate the Christian story into their lives A brief introduction offers a model for persons who might want to share their experiences in a group setting Healthy Living with Diabetes Margot Joan Fromer, 1998 HEALTH Nurse and medical writer Fromer Surviving Childhood Cancer American Psychiatric Pr 1995 recalls her grief and despair after being diagnosed with diabetes and how she took control of the disease through education and information Comparing learning the diabetes lifestyle to learning to drive a car she emphasizes the fright involved in both activities until experience teaches control She discusses diet exercise medications self management issues health complications and societal issues while baldly presenting the health consequences of uncontrolled diabetes Fromer makes exercise sound downright attractive and the insurance information is excellent she also highlights sexuality including new medications such as Viagra Her chapters on childhood diabetes are valuable as well The reading level is at times quite high but motivated readers will find this a good complement to the American Diabetes Association Complete Guide to Diabetes LJ 8 96 A worthy addition to health collections Janet M Schneider James A Haley Veterans Hosp Tampa FL Macmillan Social-studies Series: Living together in the United States ,1959 A Complete List of Adopted Textbooks, Including Workbooks, for Use in South Carolina Public Schools ,1962 Living in Communities ,1995 Improves second grade students understanding of the ways people live in a variety of communities both in the United States and in other countries while increasing globe and map skills
