Cómo enseñar a leer y escribir Antonio Barbosa Heldt,1971 Paco y Lola Emma Gamboa,Lehmann Editores,1988
Paco y Lola ,2015 Literatura infantil Margarita Dobles Rodríguez,1981 Costa Rica en el siglo XX Eugenio Rodríguez Vega,2004 Postcolonial Approaches to Latin American Children's Literature Ann González,2018-01-31 In this volume Gonz lez explores how the effects of a traumatic colonial experience are re presented to Latin American children today almost two centuries after the dismantling of colonialism proper Central to this study is the argument that the historical constraints of colonialism neocolonialism and postcolonialism have generated certain repeating themes and literary strategies in children s literature throughout the Spanish speaking Americas From the outset of Spanish domination fundamental tensions emerged between the colonizers and native groups that still exist to this day Rather than a felicitous mixing of these two opposing groups the mestizo is caught between contrasting worldviews contending explanations of reality and different values beliefs and epistemologies that is different ways of seeing and knowing Postcolonial subjects experience these contending cultural beliefs and practices as a double bind a no win situation in which they feel pressured by mutually exclusive expectations and imperatives Latin American mestizos therefore are inevitably conflicted Despite the vastness of the geography in question and the innumerable variations in regional histories oral traditions and natural settings these contradictory demands create a pervasive dynamic that penetrates the very fabric of society showing up intentionally or not in the stories passed from generation to generation as well as in new stories written or adapted for Spanish speaking children The goal of this study therefore is to examine a variety of children s texts from the region to determine how national and hemispheric perceptions of reality identity and values are passed to the next generation This book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Latin American literary and cultural studies children s literature postcolonial studies and comparative literature Boletín judicial ,1981 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse Finley, Stacie Lynn,Correll, Pamela,Pearman, Cathy,Huffman, Stephanie,2023-07-25 Empowering Students Through Multilingual and Content Discourse is a peer reviewed research book that challenges the traditional monolingual classroom approach where the teacher s voice dominates and only the dominant culture s language is considered the path to success The book aims to empower students by creating classroom spaces where all voices are heard valued and empowered It draws on research from scholars who study discourse and offers insights into how discourse can be used to promote language and literacy development honor all students voices and empower them This book also provides guidance on culturally and linguistically sustaining discourse practices and encourages educators to incorporate students home languages and discourse practices in classroom instruction It challenges educators to move away from centering White English and represent language more responsibly within the classroom This research is a valuable resource for academic scholars and a useful tool for teachers looking to cultivate student centered classroom practices By encouraging discourse among students educators can create a space where human life holds meaning and students feel empowered to act and use their voices Publicaciones
