

ENGLISH Grammar & Punctuation

GRAMMAR

THE VERB

The verb is the most important word in a sentence. It tells us what is happening and who is doing it. Verbs can be used in many different ways, and it is important to know the rules for using them correctly.

Verb forms

Verbs can be used in different forms, depending on the tense and voice of the sentence. The most common forms are the infinitive, the present participle, the past participle, and the past tense.

Verb agreement

The verb must agree with the subject of the sentence. This means that the verb must be in the same tense and voice as the subject. For example, 'He runs' is correct, but 'He run' is not.

SENTENCES

A sentence is a group of words that express a complete thought. Sentences can be simple, compound, or complex. They must always have a subject and a verb.

Simple sentences

A simple sentence has one subject and one verb. For example, 'The cat sat on the mat.'

Compound sentences

A compound sentence has two or more simple sentences joined together by a conjunction. For example, 'The cat sat on the mat and the dog barked.'

Complex sentences

A complex sentence has one main clause and one or more subordinate clauses. For example, 'When the cat sat on the mat, the dog barked.'

ADJECTIVES

Adjectives are words that describe nouns. They tell us what something is like, how much of something there is, or what kind of something it is. For example, 'The red car was very fast.'

ADVERBS

Adverbs are words that describe verbs, adjectives, or other adverbs. They tell us how, when, where, or how often something happens. For example, 'The car drove very quickly.'

PREPOSITIONS

Prepositions are words that show the relationship between a noun and another word in a sentence. They often indicate location, direction, or time. For example, 'The car was parked under the tree.'

CONJUNCTIONS

Conjunctions are words that connect two or more words, phrases, or clauses. They are used to join ideas together. For example, 'The car was fast and the driver was skilled.'

PRONOUNS

Pronouns are words that replace nouns. They are used to avoid repetition and to make sentences easier to read. For example, 'The car was fast. It was very fast.'

EMPHASIS & EMPHASIS WORDS

Emphasis words are words that are used to make a statement stronger or more important. They are often used in advertising and persuasive writing. For example, 'This is the best car in the world.'

SENTENCE PLANS & PARAGRAPHS

Sentence plans and paragraphs are used to organize writing. A sentence plan is a list of ideas that you want to write about. A paragraph is a group of sentences that all talk about the same topic.

Paragraph structure

A paragraph should have a clear beginning, middle, and end. The beginning should introduce the topic, the middle should provide details, and the end should summarize the main points.
