LaPolla,2016-12-08 There are more native speakers of Sino Tibetan languages than of any other language family in the world Our records of these languages are among the oldest for any human language and the amount of active research on them has multiplied in the last few decades Now in its second edition and fully updated to include new research The Sino Tibetan Languages includes overview articles on individual languages with an emphasis on the less commonly described languages as well as descriptions and comments on the subgroups in which they occur There are overviews of the whole family on genetic classification and language contact syntax and morphology and also on word order typology There are also more detailed overview articles on the phonology morphosyntax and writing system of just the Sinitic side of the family Supplementing these overviews are articles on Shanghainese Cantonese and Mandarin dialects Tibeto Burman is reviewed by genetic or geographical sub group with overview articles on some of the major groups and areas and there are also detailed descriptions of 41 individual Tibeto Burman languages written by world experts in the field Designed for students and researchers of Asian languages The Sino Tibetan Languages is a detailed overview of the field This book is invaluable to language students experts requiring concise but thorough information on related languages and researchers working in historical typological and comparative linguistics Professionalism in the Built Heritage Sector Koen van Balen,Aziliz Vandesande,2019-03-14 Professionalism entails the conduct aims and qualities that characterise a profession The term is also used to describe education and training standards for the knowledge and skills necessary to perform a specific profession In practice professional standards of practice and ethics are agreed upon and maintained by recognised associations In the past professionalism has not occupied a central place in built heritage discussions policy and research Recent changes in terms of public attitudes and sustainability concerns have had a cumulative impact on the requirements for professionalism in the built heritage sector The future success of the sector will depend on the availability of adequate professionals and an appropriately skilled workforce In practice the built heritage sector involves much more than interventions to conserve preserve rehabilitate or restore a heritage structure Bringing a project to fruition begins with the formulation of a policy proceeds to the design and execution of intervention strategies and ends with ongoing maintenance of heritage structures and related future programming This process requires sufficient interactions between different professionals to obtain a common vision and hold that vision throughout a project At the same time the sustainability of the sector is also defined by effective governance societal support and cultural rationales Professionalism in the Built Heritage Sector contains reports on the lectures of the international conference organized by the Raymond Lemaire International Centre for Conservation Leuven Belgium February 5th 8th 2018 The contributions in this volume meet the increasing demand for shared information to support the transition towards a more sustainable conservation process The volume consists of three main parts that deal with practice led research or scientific research Profiles and capacities Education training and quality labels and Obstacles and changes

The King's Eye John M. Daniel, 2015-09-15 The kings and queens of the Farther Isles have gathered at the castle of High King Rohar as they do every year on the Summer Solstice to pledge their loyalty But before the ceremony is over the Giant Clobber from the Isle of the South Wind storms into the Great Hall steals the High King s crystal left eye right out of its socket then disappears into the night The High King offers to reward anyone who will slay the Giant and bring back the crystal eye The reward half of Rohar s island kingdom and the hand of his daughter Llanaa in marriage The only one to stand up to the challenge is Prince Frogge a twelve year old boy from the Isle of Fens Frogge finds a partner Rodney Trapper the goatherd s so tall strong and seventeen and together the lads set out on their quest to sail to the Isle of the South Wind and to do battle with the Giant Clobber in the Meadow of Mayhem It s a fight no one believes they can win Their adventures take a full year during which they travel from Isle to Farther Isle in a boat that sails by itself guided mysteriously by the Stars The King s Eye is a story romantic and magical full of love and death heroes and scoundrels bravery and cowardice danger and high hopes This tale will delight anyone old enough to read and young enough to believe that a goatherd s son could win the heart of a princess
