Jean-Claude N. Ashukem,2026-01-01 This handbook provides an essential reference to the pivotal and dynamic field of business and human rights from an African perspective Grounded in human rights frameworks it presents the status quo of the prevailing fundamental and intersectional issues related to business and human rights regulation in Africa The handbook covers topics such as land and institutional governance corporate social responsibility and gender issues as some of the main themes and offers practical regulatory solutions based on doctrinal empirical and comparative methods Exploring the intersection of business and human rights deepens our understanding of the legal policy and regulatory challenges involved and clarifies how and to what extent human rights concerns are addressed in Africa a continent often marked by human rights violations by multinational corporations It is hoped that the solutions provided here will help advance policy regulatory and legal developments related to business and human rights in Africa Handbook of Research on Microfinancial Impacts on Women Empowerment, Poverty, and Inequality Das, Ramesh Chandra,2018-08-17 One of the major tools of attaining proper development all around the world is complete financial inclusion such that all classes of people can secure their lifestyles through access to financial services from formal sectors Expanding access to resources and increasing self employment opportunities help reduce poverty and improve social development The Handbook of Research on Microfinancial Impacts on Women Empowerment Poverty and Inequality is an essential reference source that discusses the role of financial inclusion in gender equality as well as economic independence and self employment Featuring research on topics such as inequality collaborative economy and social responsibility this publication is ideally designed for policy makers economic researchers and academicians seeking coverage on social mobilization capital formation capacity building and pro poor economy designs Involving Children For Hand Washing Behavior Change: Repeated Message Delivery to Foster Action Getnet Eshetu,2014-02-01 Changing the hand washing behavior in a community is a challenge of different disciplines including psychology and media practice Distinct beliefs prevent people from washing their hands properly in critical moments Moreover each segment of the community has a different belief Hence adults children women and men should be addressed differently This experimental study explores the process of isolating and changing the beliefs of grade six students from the Chandba Primary School in Chilga Local Administration North Gondar Zone Amhara Region in Ethiopia The intervention activities are done to increase a positive association with water and soap concerning the three critical moments namely before eating before touching or preparing food and after defecation The study describes the overall practical implementations of combined behavior change theories and shows how they can be applied to the selection of target beliefs The present study identifies important variables that are negatively and positively associated with hand hygiene The results are based on a questionnaire observations and practical evaluation of hand washing skills that were identified during the four week intervention The study helps to develop communicators to change children s hygiene behavior It has significance in helping the participants to understand better ways of using locally available materials and methods for hygiene facilities preparation It shows the effectiveness of combined implementation of practical participation and multimedia message delivery regarding hygiene behavior change interventions In general the study reviles the complementary effect of multiple communication tools and models of treatment as well as their appropriate analytic strategies to change participant s hygiene behavior

Gender-Based Violence against Female Refugees in Refugee Camps Yonas Gebreyosus,2013-04-04 Master s Thesis from the year 2013 in the subject Politics Topic Public International Law and Human Rights grade Excellent Addis Ababa University Center For Human Rights course Human Rights language English abstract Gender based violence prevents female s enjoyment of fundamental human rights and it is also central social economic and health problem Similarly gender based violence is viewed as a significant problem in refugee camps throughout the world However in Ethiopia studies on gender based violence against female refugees are limited Most researches in this area were conducted in line with other problems of refugees Yet in order to assess comprehensively it needs specific study Thus the main objective of the study was to examine the prevalence cause and consequences of gender based violence against female refugees in Mai Ayni refugee camp In order to achieve these objectives qualitative methods of data collection have been employed Hence data were collected from in depth interview with eighteen female refugees and five male refugees focus group discussion with male and female refugees key informant interviews with concerned bodies as well as document analysis and personal observation were used The study has found that female refugees in the camp were exposed to sexual violence physical violence and socio economic violence including attempt rape rape gang rape physical injuries discrimination and stigmatization and denial of access to services The study also disclosed that male refugees and intimate partners of female refugees were the prime gender based violence perpetrators of female refugees in Mai Ayni refugee camp Moreover the study revealed that idleness economic dependency physical insecurity lack of awareness collapse of social and family structure as well as poor reporting coordination and legal enforcement mechanisms were identified as causes risk factors for gender based violence against female refugees in Mai Ayni refugee camp Moreover men s feeling of loss of power in the camp which challenges male s identity as superior to female led male refugees to anger and makes female refugees vulnerable to different forms of gender based violence Consequently because of gender based violence female refugees in the camp have short and long lasting damaging consequence on their life in terms of health physical and psycho social

Contemporary Governance Challenges in the Horn of Africa Charles Manga Fombad,Assefa Fiseha,Nico Steytler,2022-09-06 This book argues that a leading cause of the political instability in the Horn of Africa is a crisis of governance caused by extreme centralization of power weak institutions and the failure to institutionalise the responsible use of authority In recent years many attempts have been made to resolve the ongoing conflicts in Somalia and South Sudan but problems remain and in 2019 the instability spread to

Ethiopia This book critically examines how many of the governance problems in the region can be addressed through institutional design The central argument is that an inclusive system of governance through federalism devolution and inclusive political institutions as well as ensuring the institutionalization of power through strengthening the rule of law has the potential to make governments more accountable inclusive and be able to deliver critical services Such systems ensure relative stability and peace and reduce the risks of state fragmentation a major concern in the region Demonstrating that the threats of further fragmentation and conflict due to the crisis of governance are likely to continue unless serious steps are taken to deal with the situation the book will be an important read for researchers and policy makers with an interest in peacemaking politics constitutional law and federalism in the region IASLIC Bulletin IASLIC (Association),1997

Contested Power in Ethiopia Kjetil Tronvoll,Tobias Hagmann,2011-12-02 This book offers a comparative ethnography of the contested powers that shape democratization in Ethiopia Although multi party elections have become the norm in Africa relatively little is known about the significance of non state actors such as traditional authorities in electioneering Focusing on Ethiopia s competitive 2005 elections this book analyzes how customary leaders political parties and state officials confronted and complemented each other during election time Case studies reveal the contemporaneousness of traditional authorities in modern politics but also how multi party competition reproduces traditional relations of domination among ethnic groups The book documents the importance of customary authority in selecting party candidates and providing legitimacy to political parties but also their limitations in a country dominated by a semi authoritarian party state Tissue Culture, 1983-85 Henry Gilbert,1985 African Economic Development, 1979-85 Mary E.
