Ernst Haas Color Correction:

Ernst Haas William A. Ewing, Ernst Haas, Phillip Prodger, 2011 Ernst Haas is unquestionably one of the best known most prolific and most published photographers of the twentieth century He is most associated with a vibrant colour photography which for decades was much in demand by the illustrated press This colour work published in the most influential magazines in Europe and America also fed a constant stream of books and these too enjoyed great popularity But although his colour work earned him fame around the world in recent decades it has often been derided by critics and curators as overly commercial and too easily accessible or in the language of curators not sufficiently serious As a result his reputation has suffered in comparison with a younger generation of colour photographers notably Eggleston Shore and Meyerowitz Paradoxically however there was also a side of his work that was almost entirely hidden from view Parallel to his commissioned work Haas constantly made images for his own interest and these pictures show an entirely different aspect of Haas sensibility they are far more edgy loose complex and ambiguous in short far more radical than the work which earned him fame Haas never printed these pictures in his lifetime nor did he exhibit them probably believing that they would not be understood or appreciated Nonetheless these works are of great complexity and rival and sometimes surpass anything done at the time by his fellow photographers This book is intended to correct the record Ernst Haas was born in Vienna in 1921 and took up photography after the war His early Austrian work on returning prisoners of war brought him to the attention of Life Magazine but he courageously declined a job as staff photographer in order to keep his independence At the invitation of Robert Capa Haas joined Magnum in 1949 developing close associations with Capa Bishof and Cartier Bresson He began experimenting with colour and went on to become the premier colour photographer of the 1950s In 1962 New Yorks Museum of Modern Art mounted its first solo exhibition of his colour photography Haas books were legion and one The Creation 1971 sold 350 000 copies Ernst Haas received the Hasselblad award in 1986 the year of his death Color Correction, 2016-10-27 Ernst Haas, 2010 Ernst Haas Ernst Haas, 19?? Getting the Picture Jason E. Hill, Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2020-09-08 Powerful and often controversial news pictures promise to make the world at once immediate and knowable Yet while many great writers and thinkers have evaluated photographs of atrocity and crisis few have sought to set these images in a broader context by defining the rich and diverse history of news pictures in their many forms For the first time this volume defines what counts as a news picture how pictures are selected and distributed where they are seen and how we critique and value them Presenting the best new thinking on this fascinating topic this book considers the news picture over time from the dawn of the illustrated press in the nineteenth century through photojournalism s heyday and the rise of broadcast news and newsreels in the twentieth century and into today s digital platforms It examines the many kinds of images sport fashion society celebrity war catastrophe and exoticism and many mediums including photography painting wood engraving film and video Packed with the best research and full colour illustrations throughout this book will appeal to students and readers interested in how news and history are key sources of our rich visual culture

Jet Age Aesthetic
Vanessa R. Schwartz, 2020-02-21 A stunning look at the profound impact of the jet plane on the mid century aesthetic from Disneyland to Life magazine Vanessa R Schwartz engagingly presents the jet plane s power to define a new age at a critical moment in the mid 20th century arguing that the craft s speed and smooth ride allowed people to imagine themselves living in the future Exploring realms as diverse as airport architecture theme park design film and photography Schwartz argues that the jet created an aesthetic that circulated on the ground below Visual and media culture including Eero Saarinen s airports David Bailey s photographs of the jet set and Ernst Haas s experiments in color photojournalism glamorized the imagery of motion Drawing on unprecedented access to the archives of The Walt Disney Studios Schwartz also examines the period s most successful example of fluid motion meeting media culture Disneyland The park s dedication to people moving defined Walt Disney s vision shaping the very identity of the place The jet age aesthetic laid the groundwork for our contemporary media culture in which motion is so fluid that we can surf the internet while going nowhere at all
