Keeping Corner:

Keeping Corner Kashmira Sheth,2009-03 Pretty as a peacock twelve year old Leela had been spoiled all her life She doesn't care for school and barely marks the growing unrest between the British colonists and her own countrymen Why should she Her future has been planned since her engagement Ethnic Studies and Youth Literature Marilisa Jiménez García,Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez,2025-07-01 Brings together scholars and practitioners to present an ethnic studies framework for studying and teaching youth literature For decades youth literature has been reckoning with its role in systemic racism and oppression In this landmark edited volume Marilisa Jiménez García and Sonia Alejandra Rodríguez assemble a cadre of well known women of color scholars and practitioners to make a case for ethnic studies as a path for pursuing racial justice in the field Ethnic studies they argue demands that we go beyond seeing race ethnicity culture and diversity as questions of identity and difference Instead it shows us how marginalized positionalities create epistemologies that shape our understanding of age craft genre and knowledge production Multidisciplinary and intersectional in its approach Ethnic Studies and Youth Literature analyzes US imperialism through the lens of youth literature and vice versa shedding light on the roots of our current culture wars and curriculum battles Factory,1925 Vols 24 no 3 v 34 no 3 include International industrial digest Kansas City School Service Bulletin Kansas City (Mo.). Contemporary English-Language Indian Children's Literature Michelle Superle,2011-05-09 Concurrent with increasing scholarly attention toward national children's literatures Contemporary English Language Indian Children's Literature explores an emerging body of work that has thus far garnered little serious critical attention Superle critically examines the ways Indian children's writers have represented childhood in relation to the Indian nation Indian cultural identity and Indian girlhood From a framework of postcolonial and feminist theories children's novels published between 1988 and 2008 in India are compared with those from the United Kingdom and North America from the same period considering the differing ideologies and the current textual constructions of childhood at play in each Broadly Superle contends that over the past twenty years an aspirational view of childhood has developed in this literature a view that positions children as powerful participants in the project of enabling positive social transformation Her main argument formed after recognizing several overarching thematic and structural patterns in more than one hundred texts is that the novels comprise an aspirational literature with a transformative agenda they imagine apparently empowered child characters who perform in diverse ways in the process of successfully creating and shaping the ideal Indian nation their own well adjusted bicultural identities in the diaspora and or their own empowered girlhoods Michelle Superle is a Professor in the department of Communications at Okanagan College She has taught children's literature composition and creative writing courses at various Canadian universities and has published articles in Papers and IRCL Course of Study for State Graded Schools of Wisconsin Wisconsin.
