Paper Towns Bing:

Investigating Google's Search Engine Rosie Graham,2022-12-15 What do search engines do And what should they do These questions seem relatively simple but are actually urgent social and ethical issues The influence of Google s search engine is enormous It does not only shape how Internet users find pages on the World Wide Web but how we think as individuals how we collectively remember the past and how we communicate with one another This book explores the impact of search engines within contemporary digital culture focusing on the social cultural and philosophical influence of Google Using case studies like Google s role in the rise of fake news instances of sexist and misogynistic Autocomplete suggestions and search queries relating to LGBTQ values it offers original evidence to intervene practically in existing debates It also addresses other understudied aspects of Google s influence including the profound implications of its revenue generation for wider society In doing this this important book helps to evaluate the real cost of search engines on an individual and global scale

Transmedia Storytelling Jennifer Camden,Kate Faber Oestreich,2018-12-14 This volume charts the evolution of Pemberley Digital s transmedia adaptations of nineteenth century novels in order to interrogate the uneasy relationship between transmedia storytelling and consumer culture It first examines two Austen centered films Lost in Austen and Austenland that present immersive Austen experiences that anticipate Pemberley Digital s transmedia adaptations bridging traditional film adaptations and transmedia s participatory culture Subsequent chapters turn to Pemberley Digital s transmedia adaptations of Austen s and Shelley s novels to argue that although such adaptations may appear feminist in their emphasis on female protagonists their larger narratives expose a subtext of anxiety about unstable gender roles financial vulnerability and the undervaluation of career specific skill sets both for the characters and the production company itself The study provides a robust theoretical framework within which to read transmedia adaptations of classic literature illuminating both the potential of and the challenges facing digital and transmedia storytellers and participants Advanced

Reading Instruction in Middle School Janice I. Robbins,2021-09-03 Addressing the needs of academically advanced young adolescents in reading is a tall order Advanced Reading Instruction in Middle School offers teachers a structured process for guiding students in preparing for collaborative discussions about books Structured discussions enable students to examine the author s work together as they respond to essential questions using evidence from the reading Students are directed to make personal connections to story characters plots and settings They are asked to explore the writer s craft through the examination of selected words structures settings and literary devices incorporated in the novels This guide includes specific literary analysis activities suitable for the six types of fiction presented and offers annotated lists of recommended advanced level books of each type including those recommended in the CCSS The guide also supports the social and emotional issues of early adolescents offering specific works suitable for a range of common topics such as identity friendships high expectations and feelings of isolation Grades 6 8
