Beginning Postcolonialism John McLeod, 2000-07-07 Postcolonialism has become one of the most exciting expanding and challenging areas of literary and cultural studies today Designed especially for those studying the topic for the first time Beginning Postcolonialism introduces the major areas of concern in a clear accessible and organized fashion It provides an overview of the emergence of postcolonialism as a discipline and closely examines many of its important critical writings

Beginning postcolonialism John McLeod, 2013-01-18 Postcolonialism has become one of the most exciting popular and stimulating fields of literary and cultural studies in recent years Yet the variety of approaches the range of debate and the critical vocabularies often used may make it challenging for new students to establish a firm foothold in this area Beginning Postcolonialism is a vital resource for those taking undergraduate courses in postcolonial studies for the first time and has become an established international best seller in the field In this fully revised and updated second edition John McLeod introduces the major areas of concern in a clear accessible and organised fashion He provides an overview of the emergence of postcolonialism as a discipline and closely examines its many established critical approaches while also exploring important recent initiatives in the field In particular Beginning Postcolonialism demonstrates how many key postcolonial ideas and concepts can be effectively applied when reading texts and enables students to develop their own independent thinking about the possibilities and pitfalls of postcolonial critique Concepts of Home and Belonging in Postcolonial Literature Compared in the Novels "Small Island" by Andrea Levy and "White Teeth" by Zadie Smith Christina Heckmann, 2009 Seminar paper from the year 2006 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 2.00 University of Göttingen Seminar für Englische Philologie course Multiethnic Britain language English abstract 1 Introduction 1.1 Brief introduction to home and belonging as a general idea Home has a significant function in our lives Thinking of home we associate notions like shelter and comfort and when we come home we want to feel safe and welcome John McLeod argues in this sense that to be at home is to occupy a location where we are welcome where we can be with people very much like ourselves 1 We are looking for who we are where we come from and try to find our place in life When one is born in a country but moves to another where is one's home country then This question is hard to answer because migration is always a process which implies a struggle of identities When the 2nd generation is born in the host country where do they belong if the host country does not accept them as full members The term home is highly complicated in a complex and multicultural world like ours 1.2 Procedure and approach of my analyses I have centered my term paper on an attempt to identify and characterize the concepts of home and belonging in postcolonial literature Comparing how the idea of home and belonging is presented in the novels White Teeth by Zadie Smith and Small Island by Andrea Levy I have tried a text extrinsic approach Furthermore I have analysed the authors intentions with regard to the time of publication and the time of the narrative However the main aspect of my analyses is which concepts of home and belonging exist and which of them can be found in the novels of my comparison I have chosen White Teeth because it is a novel that deals with the colonial past and the postcolonial present and I have selected Small Island because it is a novel that deals with migration in the past. Small Island is set at the beginning.

The Postcolonial Novel Richard Lane, 2006-07-21 Richard Lane explores the themes surrounding the postcolonial novel written in English.

The Postcolonial Indian Novel in English Geetha Ganapathy-Doré, 2011-01-18 Indian writers of English such as G V Desani Salman Rushdie Amit Chaudhuri Amitav Ghosh Vikram Seth Allan Sealy Shashi Tharoor Arundhati Roy Vikram Chandra and Jhumpa Lahiri have taken the potentialities of the novel form to new heights. Against the background of the genre's macro history this study attempts to explain the stunning vitality colourful diversity and the outstanding but sometimes controversial success of postcolonial Indian novels in the light of ongoing debates in postcolonial studies. It analyses the warp and woof of the novelistic text through a cross sectional scrutiny of the issues of democracy the poetics of space the times of empire nation and globalization self writing in the auto meta docu fictional modes the musical pictorial cinematic and culinary intertextualities that run through this hyperpalimpsestic practice and the politics of gender caste and language that gives it an inimitable stamp. This concise and readable survey gives us intimations of a truly world literature as imagined by Francophone writers because the postcolonial Indian novel is a concrete illustration of how language liberated from its exclusive pact with the nation can enter into a dialogue with a vast polyphonic ensemble.
