Migrants, Television and Australian Stories Kate Darian-Smith, Sue Turnbull, Sukhmani Khorana, Kyle Harvey, 2025-05-26 This book examines the intertwined histories of television and migration in Australia told from the perspectives of migrants who worked in the screen industry and the many more who watched television Their stories demonstrate how Australia's growing cultural diversity has challenged conventional representations of Australianness on television and how ongoing advocacy has supported the growing inclusivity of multiple narratives and diverse experiences on screen Migrants from many backgrounds were instrumental in the establishment in 1956 of Australian television working behind and in front of the cameras as producers directors writers technicians and actors From early broadcasting to the digital present portrayals of cultural differences have often been shaped by appropriation ethnic stereotyping and racism This has occurred across a range of formats from drama to comedy to news and reality shows Many in the industry have responded with resilience and creative adaptation as they have increasingly taken control of the ways that migrant stories are told and diversity is celebrated The first comprehensive Australian study of migrants and television this book considers the ways multicultural audiences have experienced the small screen over seven decades Drawing on rich oral histories it analyses the memories of television in the work school family life and leisure of migrant communities and their broader engagements with Australian culture Research in the archives of broadcasters and production companies reveals how non-Anglo Australian characters were constructed and how such portrayals have shifted This new history takes us to digital screen production and consumption today exploring how Australians of many diasporas engage with the global network of screen content in the twenty first century It is essential reading for media professionals advocates students and those interested in the intersections between media cultural diversity and the nation

Exalting Jesus in Hosea, Joel, Amos, Obadiah Allan Moseley, Jonathan Akin, 2025-02-01 Exalting Jesus in Hosea Joel Amos Obadiah is part of the Christ Centered Exposition Commentary series Edited by David Platt Daniel L Akin and Tony Merida this commentary series takes a Christ centered approach to expositing each book of the Bible Each chapter explains and applies key passages providing helpful outlines for study and teaching

Mediated Identities and New Journalism in the Arab World Aziz Douai, Mohamed Ben Moussa, 2016-11-14 This book looks into the role played by mediated communication particularly new and social media in shaping various forms of struggles around power identity and religion at a time when the Arab world is going through an unprecedented period of turmoil and upheaval The book provides unique and multifocal perspectives on how new forms of communication remain at the centre of historical transformations in the region The key focus of this book is not to ascertain the extent to which new communication technologies have generated the Arab spring or led to its aftermaths but instead question how we can better understand many types of articulations between communication technologies on the one hand and forms of resistance collective action and modes of expression that have contributed to the recent uprisings and continue to shape the social and political upheavals in the region on the other The book presents original perspectives and rigorous analysis by specialists and academics from around the world that will certainly enrich the debate around major issues raised by recent historical events
